STATISTICS OF INCOME FOR 1932

TREASURY DEPARTMENT,
OFFICE OF COMMISSIONER OF INTERNAL REVENUE,
Washington, D.C., November 7, 1934.

SIR: In accordance with the provisions contained in the Revenue Act of 1916 and subsequent acts for the publication annually of statistics with respect to the operation of the income, war-profits, and excess-profits tax laws, I have the honor to transmit herewith a report entitled "Statistics of Income for 1932," prepared from the income-tax returns of individuals and corporations for that year filed during 1933, with a historical presentation of the income and tax liability reported by individuals and corporations since the inception of the present period of income taxation under the sixteenth amendment to the Constitution. The report also contains tabulations of data from estate-tax returns filed during 1933, irrespective of the date of death of the decedent, and a brief historical summary, as well as tabulations of data from gift-tax returns filed during 1933.

GENERAL EXPLANATIONS

Returns tabulated.—In general, the returns included in this report are for the calendar year 1932, filed under the provisions of the Revenue Act of 1932. The major provisions of this act affecting individual income taxes were the reduction in personal exemptions from \$3,500 to \$2,500 for married individuals, or heads of families, and from \$1,500 to \$1,000 for single individuals; an increase in the normal tax rates from $1\frac{1}{2}$, 3, and 5 percent to 4 and 8 percent; increased surtaxes—graduated from 1 percent on net income in excess of \$6,000 to 55 percent on net income in excess of \$1,000,000, in lieu of 1 percent on net income in excess of \$10,000 to 20 percent in excess of \$100,000; elimination of the tax credit for earned income; and limitation of deduction for losses from sales or exchanges of stocks and bonds (as defined in the act) held for a period of 2 years or less to the amount of gains from similar transactions. For corporations, this act increased the tax rate for 1932 from 12 to $13\frac{3}{4}$ percent, with an additional tax of three-fourths of 1 percent on net income reported on consolidated returns, eliminated the specific credit of \$3,000 for corporations with small incomes, and limited the deductions for prior year losses to losses of the preceding year.

Although most of the returns included in this report are for the calendar year 1932, a considerable number of corporation returns and a negligible number of individual returns are for a fiscal year other than the calendar year. Thus there are included with the returns for the calendar year 1932, returns with fiscal year ending within the period July 1, 1932, to June 30, 1933, and fractional (part year) returns for which the greater part of the period falls in 1932. The general tables therefore include calendar, fiscal, and fractional (part year) returns, except when otherwise specified.

The general tables for corporations include all returns, those showing net income as well as those showing no net income. The general tables for individuals include only returns showing net income. The data tabulated from returns with no net income are shown on pages 20 and 131. Prior to 1928 no tabulations were made from returns with no net income. The Revenue Act of 1921 and subsequent acts provide that a return be filed, irrespective of the amount of net income (or deficit), by every individual, if single or if married and not living with husband or wife, having a gross income of $5,000 and over, and every married couple living together having an aggregate gross income of $5,000 and over. Moreover, returns showing net income below the minimum provided by the revenue acts are frequently filed by married couples who elect to file separate returns as provided by law; also as part-year returns filed in the case of the death of the taxpayer and covering the income period to the date of death, and in cases where the taxpayer elects to change the accounting period.

The statistics contained in this report are based on the taxpayers' returns as filed, unaudited except for a preliminary examination to insure proper execution of the returns, and include amended returns showing net income of $100,000 and over, but do not include amended returns with net income under $100,000. Income-tax returns filed by individuals having net income of $5,000 and over and individual returns of net income under $5,000 which display income characteristics similar to those usually found in returns of net income of $5,000 and over, such as varied or unusual sources of income or large total income, and all returns filed by corporations, pass through the statistical section, and the data are tabulated from each of these returns.

The statistics applying to individual returns with net income under $5,000, except those specified above (which numbered approximately 330,000), represent estimates based on samples of such returns. Averages for the various items from a sample for each State are applied to the total number of returns of the class which they represent to secure estimates for the particular State. The samples are selected from both forms on which individual incomes are reported—form 1040 for net income from salaries or wages of more than $5,000, or income regardless of amount from business, profession, rents, or sale of property, and form 1040A for net income of not more than $5,000, derived chiefly from salaries and wages. All 1040 returns are sent to Washington for audit, and those with net income under $5,000 are sampled by the statistical section. The 1040A returns are audited in the collection districts, and samples only are sent to Washington.

The sample for 1932 included approximately 240,000 returns on form 1040, and 263,000 on form 1040A, representing for each collection district not less than 10 percent of the number of each form of return with net income under $5,000, distributed approximately equally between taxable and nontaxable returns. The specified minimum for the 1040 returns was 4,000 wherever the number filed exceeded that figure, and for 1040A's the minimum was 2,000 wherever the number filed exceeded that figure. When the number of returns filed in any collection district in this class was less than the respective minima the entire number filed was tabulated.

For 1929 and subsequent years the number of returns with net income under $5,000 is based in part on Income Tax Unit reports and in part on reports of collectors; for years prior to 1929 it is based on collectors' reports. (See 1929 Statistics of Income, p. 2.)

In certain text and basic tables the amounts in dollars are expressed in thousands. In every case where this rounding occurs it is clearly indicated in the subtitle or in a column heading of the table.

General definitions.—Throughout this report "net income" represents the amount of gross income, as defined in the revenue act effective for the year for which the income is returned, in excess of the deductions claimed by the taxpayer under the provisions of the respective acts, and "deficit" means excess of deductions over gross income. The net income of individuals includes capital net gain from sale of assets held more than 2 years. Credits allowed individuals, such as personal exemption, credit for dependents, net loss for prior year, and net loss from the sale of capital assets held more than 2 years which is reported for tax credit, are not included in deductions; neither is net loss for prior year included in deductions in arriving at net income of corporations.

Gross income and deductions shown in the corporation tables correspond to the total income and total deductions reported in items 13 and 25, respectively, plus the cost of goods sold, item 2, and cost of other operations, item 5 on face of return for 1932. Attention is directed to changes in certain items on face of return for 1932. (See form 1120, p. 226.)

The amount of income-tax liability returned for 1932, shown in the tabulations in this volume, is not entirely comparable with the amount of taxes collected during the calendar year 1933. Several factors are responsible for this discrepancy, among which are the following:

1. The amount of tax originally reported in the returns does not always represent precisely the amount of tax paid, for the reason that an adjustment may be made after the data have been taken from the original returns for the Statistics of Income. These adjustments may result in additional assessments, thereby increasing the tax liability, or in certificates of overassessments, thereby decreasing the tax liability. An amended return has the same effect as an adjustment.

2. Income and profits taxes paid to foreign governments or possessions of the United States are deductible from income taxes payable to the United States as limited by section 131 (b) of the Revenue Act of 1928 with respect to income returned for 1931 and as limited by section 131 (b) of the Revenue Act of 1932 with respect to income for 1932. The amount of tax taken as credit under this provision of law has not been deducted from the amount of tax liability shown in the tabulations. The aggregate amount of income and profits taxes paid to foreign governments or possessions of the United States taken as a credit by corporations, 1925 to 1932, is, however, shown on page 26. Similar figures for individual returns are available only for the years 1925 to 1930, inclusive, and appear on page 9 of the Statistics of Income for 1930. Individual income taxes paid at the source on tax-free covenant bonds are deductible from income taxes payable by individuals but are not deducted in the income-tax liability of individual returns shown herein. However, all collections representing income tax paid at source on tax-free covenant bonds are classified with the corporation income tax collections, due to the tax being assessed against the debtor corporation notwithstanding the fact that it is paid on behalf of individual holders of bonds.

3. The amount of income taxes in fiscal-year returns included in this tabulation may not represent taxes collected during 1933 on such returns. Fiscal-year returns are required to be filed on or before the 15th day of the third month after the end of the fiscal year, and payment as in the case of calendar-year returns is required at the time the return is filed, or in four quarterly installments. The first of the quarterly installments is due when the return is filed. Thus, during the calendar year 1933, collections were made of part or all of the taxes in returns for fiscal years ended from January 31, 1932 (the last quarterly installment payment on which was due on or before Jan. 15, 1933), to September 30, 1933 (the filing of returns and the full payment or first installment payment on which was due on or before Dec. 15, 1933), whereas, as previously indicated, there are excluded from these statistics the returns for fiscal years ending prior to July 1, 1932, and subsequent to June 30, 1933.

4. Delays in payment due to financial embarrassment, death, liquidation of business, or any other cause, result in collections of taxes after the close of the year in which such taxes are due, and the classification of such collections as "back taxes" because made in a subsequent year. Certain amounts are uncollectible, due likewise to the above causes.

5. Current collections include such interest and penalty items as are received during the year in connection with delinquent payments on returns for 1932.

Industrial classification.—The industrial classification is based on the predominant business of nonaffiliated corporations or of groups of affiliated corporations filing a single return. The industrial groups, therefore, do not contain solely corporations engaged exclusively in the industries in which they are classified, due to the diversified industrial activities of many corporations and especially to affiliated corporations filing consolidated returns, which latter include the income and deductions of the subsidiary or affiliated corporations. If such affiliated corporations could be classified independently of the consolidated returns, many would fall in industrial divisions other than the ones in which they are included.

Geographic distribution.—The data, although tabulated by returns filed in each State, do not represent what may be called the geographic distribution of income, there being no way of ascertaining from the income-tax returns the amount of income originating in the respective States or the amount of tax paid on that basis, as income reported by an individual or corporation in one State may have been derived from sources in other States. An individual files his income-tax return in the collection district in which his legal residence or principal place of business is located, and a corporation files its income-tax return in the collection district in which its principal place of business or the principal office or agency is situated, excepting closely affiliated concerns filing a consolidated return. In the latter case the consolidated return is frequently filed in a State other than the States in which the principal places of business or principal offices or agencies of the subsidiaries are located.

Comparability with previous reports.—In various sections of this report, attention is called to special conditions affecting the comparability of specific items with similar data for earlier years. In addition there are certain major conditions which prevent strict comparability of the corporation income-tax data from year to year. Shifts in the industrial classification are due among other causes to the affiliation of concerns formerly filing separate returns and the disintegration of groups of concerns filing consolidated returns. Such changes in corporation returns also affect the geographic distribution of data through changes in the location of the principal place of business or principal office or agency of concerns entering into or separating from consolidated groups. Moreover, the total as well as the separate items of assets and liabilities, and of receipts and deductions, are affected by changes in affiliations for consolidated returns.

Changes in the provisions of the revenue acts under which the returns for given years are filed also interfere with a precise comparability of the data.

INDIVIDUAL INCOME-TAX RETURNS

The number of returns of individuals for 1932 was 3,877,430, of which 1,936,095 were taxable and 1,941,335 nontaxable. The aggregate net income was $11,655,756,678; the net income on taxable returns was $7,919,587,855, on which the tax liability was $329,962,311. As compared with the returns for the previous year, the total number for 1932 increased by 651,506, or 20.2 percent. The average net income for 1932 was $3,006.05 for all returns, and $6,020.24 for taxable returns, the average amount of tax liability was $85.10 for all returns and $170.43 for taxable returns, and the average tax rate was 2.8 percent for all returns and 4.2 percent for taxable returns. For the preceding year the average net income was $4,217.40 for all returns and $6,094.22 for taxable returns, the average tax liability was $76.30 for all returns, and $161.34 for taxable returns, and the average tax rate was 1.8 percent for all returns and 2.7 percent for taxable returns. The ratio of the number of returns filed to the total population (Census Bureau estimate of population as of July 1, 1932) is 3.1 percent, as compared with a corresponding ratio for the preceding year of 2.6 percent.

The distribution of returns of individuals by States and Territories is given in basic table 1, page 65, and by net income classes in basic table 2, pages 66 and 67. Each of these tables shows number of returns, net income, and tax.

SIMPLE AND CUMULATIVE DISTRIBUTION BY NET INCOME CLASSES OF NUMBER OF RETURNS, NET INCOME, AND TAX (INDIVIDUAL RETURNS)

The distribution of the returns, by a limited number of net income classes, is exhibited in the following table, which includes the number of returns, net income, and tax; also cumulative totals and percentages. In basic table 3, pages 68 to 70, a similar distribution of the number of returns, net income, and tax is shown by a more detailed net income classification.

CLASSIFICATION BY SEX AND FAMILY RELATIONSHIP (INDIVIDUAL RETURNS)

The following table shows the number of individual returns and the net income distributed according to sex and family relationship of the taxpayer. In basic tables 4 and 5, pages 71 to 74, similar data are shown by States and Territories and by net income classes, respectively.

*Individual returns for 1932 by sex and family relationship of taxpayer, showing number of returns, net income, and percentages*¹

There is shown below a restatement of data appearing on page 6 of the Statistics of Income for 1931, in which the figures for certain items were transposed:

CAPITAL NET GAINS AND LOSSES (INDIVIDUAL RETURNS)

The special provisions in the revenue acts for capital net gains and losses from the sale of assets held more than two years apply, for capital net gains, to sales after December 31, 1921, and for capital net losses, to sales after December 31, 1923.

Under the Revenue Act of 1921 and subsequent acts, capital net gains as defined in the revenue acts from the sale of assets held more than two years may, at the option of the taxpayer, be reported separately and taxed at 12½ percent in lieu of the normal tax and surtax rates otherwise applicable. The income tax of the individual in such cases is the sum of 12½ percent of the capital net gains plus the tax on the net income from other sources, termed "ordinary net income," computed according to the provisions of the respective revenue acts.

The capital net gains and the tax at 12½ percent of such gains reported for 1922 and following years appear on pages 38 and 43-45, respectively, of this report. In order that the amounts shown as "net income" and "total income" in the Statistics of Income for 1922 and subsequent years be made comparable with earlier years, it is necessary that "net income" and "total income" be increased by the amount of such gains. These adjustments have been made in the Statistics of Income for these years.

Under the Revenue Act of 1924 and subsequent acts the taxpayer must report his capital net loss, as defined in the respective acts, from the sale of assets held more than two years by one of two methods, whichever will produce the larger tax. These two methods are (1) the tax on the net income from other sources, termed "ordinary net income," computed according to the provisions of the respective revenue acts, less 12½ percent of the capital net loss, and (2) the tax on the net income computed without regard for the special provisions for capital net losses.

The tax credit of 12½ percent on capital net losses for 1924 and following years appears on page 38. Under the Revenue Acts of 1918 and 1921 such losses are deducted in arriving at net income. Under the Revenue Acts of 1916 and 1917 losses sustained in transactions entered into for profit but not connected with business or trade are deductible to the extent of the aggregate income from such transactions. In order that the amounts shown as "net income" and "deductions" in the Statistics of Income for 1924 and subsequent years be made comparable with the amounts shown in Statistics of Income for 1918 to 1923, inclusive, it is necessary that "net income" be reduced by, and "deductions" be increased by, the amount of such losses. These adjustments have not been made in the "net income" and "deductions" shown in the Statistics of Income for these years.

NET LOSS FOR PRIOR YEAR (INDIVIDUAL RETURNS)

The net loss during a given taxable year in a trade or business regularly carried on by the taxpayer, as specifically defined in the Revenue Acts of 1921 to 1928, inclusive, is allowed as a deduction in computing the net income of the taxpayer for the succeeding taxable year, and if such net loss exceeds the net income for the succeeding year the amount of such excess is to be allowed in the next succeeding year. Moreover, if such net loss is in excess of the ordinary net income before deduction of this loss, and the taxpayer has a capital net gain, the amount of such excess shall next be applied against the capital net gain for such year, and if this excess is larger than the capital net gain for such year, the balance is similarly allowed as a deduction in computing the ordinary net income and the capital net gain the next succeeding taxable year. (See section 117 of the Revenue Act of 1928.) Under the Revenue Act of 1932 net losses for 1931 only are allowed as deductions in computing net income of the taxpayer for 1932.

Such net losses, being of prior year origin, are not included in the current year deductions in arriving at the net income for the various years shown in this volume. Net loss for prior year reported in the individual income tax returns for the years 1922 to 1932, inclusive, and taken as a deduction in computing ordinary net income and capital net gain is given below:

Year—	Amount	Year—	Amount
1922-----	$45, 220, 859	1928-----	$33, 616, 475
1923-----	34, 266, 149	1929-----	28, 909, 275
1924-----	29, 869, 182	1930-----	39, 920, 711
1925-----	32, 321, 310	1931-----	43, 754, 089
1926-----	27, 411, 767	1932-----	28, 983, 608
1927-----	37, 054, 785

SOURCES OF INCOME AND DEDUCTIONS (INDIVIDUAL RETURNS)

Immediately following is shown a distribution by sources of the income and deductions reported by individuals. The figures for the various sources are aggregates of net amounts of income, and represent the amounts by which the gross income exceeds the deductions allowed for each specific source, as provided in the schedules of the return. (See form 1040, p. 220.) Net losses reported in the schedules are transferred in tabulation to deductions, which also include amounts reported on the return under "Deductions" from total income.

Income from partnerships and fiduciaries does not include amounts received through these entities from capital net gain from sale of assets held more than 2 years, dividends on stock of domestic corporations, or taxable interest on obligations of the United States, since these items are reported under their respective classifications. Amounts shown in earlier reports, as "Interest and other income," are segregated into "Interest other than tax-exempt" and "Other income." With reference to the amount of profits and losses from sales of assets, other than those held for more than 2 years, attention is directed to the provisions of the Revenue Act of 1932. The provisions of section 23 (r) limit deductions for losses from the sales or exchanges of stocks and bonds, as defined in section 23 (t), held for 2 years or less, to the gains from such sales or exchanges.

(FREQUENCY DISTRIBUTION BY SIZE OF SPECIFIC ITEMS OF INCOME AND DEDUCTIONS, RETURNS OF NET INCOME OF $5,000 AND OVER (INDIVIDUAL RETURNS))

In the general tables for individual returns, data are classified according to the net income of the individual. Within net income classes, returns may show widely varying amounts of income and deductions from specific sources. In the following table specific items of income and deductions reported on returns of net income of $5,000 and over are classified according to the size.

Sources of income not included in this tabulation are partnership, fiduciary, and interest and other income. The total income received through partnerships and fiduciaries may not be included in items 5 and 6, form 1040, provided for such income, since the instructions relative to those items provide:

Enter as item 5 your share (whether received or not) of the profits of a partnership, syndicate, pool, etc., and as item 6 income from an estate or trust, except that the share of (a) capital net gain or loss computed as provided in instruction 8a shall be reported in schedule D, (b) taxable interest on obligations of the United States shall be included in schedule E, and (c) profits which consisted of dividends on stock of domestic corporations shall be included in item 10 (a) and/or (b) on the return.

NET PROFIT FROM BUSINESS, RETURNS OF NET INCOME OF $5,000 AND OVER, BY MAJOR INDUSTRIAL GROUPS (INDIVIDUAL RETURNS)

The net profit from business (other than from partnerships) reported in returns, form 1040, of net income of $5,000 and over is classified below according to the nature of the business. These data represent only such amounts reported by individuals as were derived from business operations conducted as sole proprietors, and do not necessarily indicate the principal occupation of or the total income reported by the individual making the return. Business profits reported on returns, form 1040, showing net income of less than $5,000 are not included.

The net profit from business as shown in these statistics represents the total receipts from business or profession, less cost of goods sold and other business deductions, such as salaries, interest on business indebtedness, taxes on business or business property, loss from fire or storm, bad debts arising from sales, depreciation, obsolescence and depletion, rents, repairs, and other expenses, as provided for in schedule A of the individual income-tax returns, form 1040.

TAXES PAID OTHER THAN FEDERAL INCOME TAX AND INTEREST PAID, RETURNS OF NET INCOME OF $5,000 AND OVER (INDIVIDUAL RETURNS)

In basic tables 8 and 8A, pages 79 and 80, taxes paid other than Federal income tax or that amount of the income and profits taxes paid foreign countries or possessions of the United States allowed as a deduction, and interest paid as reported in the returns of net income of $5,000 and over, are distributed by States and Territories and by net income classes, respectively. Table 8A includes a historical summary of these data for the years 1927 through 1931.

The amounts are shown separately as reported in business deductions in Schedule A, Income from Business or Profession, and in deductions from total income. Taxes paid other than Federal income tax are reported under "Deductions" in the individual income tax return (item 14 on form 1040) in accordance with the following instructions:

Enter as item 14 personal taxes and taxes paid on property not used in your business or profession, not including those assessed against local benefits of a kind tending to increase the value of the property assessed. Do not include Federal income taxes, taxes imposed upon your interest as shareholder of a corporation which are paid by the corporation without reimbursement from you, nor income taxes claimed as a credit in item 40. No deduction is allowable for any portion of foreign income and profits taxes if a credit is claimed in item 40.

Taxes paid on business property or for carrying on business as reported under business deductions in item 12, Schedule A, Income from Business or Profession, do not include Federal income taxes, taxes assessed against local benefits of a kind tending to increase the value of property, nor taxes imposed upon sales by manufacturers. Amounts tabulated do not include taxes reported on form 1040F, Schedule of Farm Income and Expenses.

Interest paid is reported under "Deductions" in the individual income tax return (item 13, form 1040) in accordance with the following instructions:

Enter as item 13 interest paid on personal indebtedness as distinguished from business indebtedness (which should be deducted under schedule A or B). Do not include interest on indebtedness incurred or continued to purchase or carry obligations or securities the interest upon which is wholly exempt from taxation or interest on indebtedness incurred or continued in connection with the purchasing or carrying of an annuity.

Interest paid on business indebtedness to others is reported under business deductions in item 11, Schedule A, Income from Business or Profession, in accordance with the following instructions:

Enter on line 11 interest on business indebtedness. Do not include interest to yourself on capital invested in or advanced to the business.

WHOLLY AND PARTIALLY TAX-EXEMPT OBLIGATIONS, RETURNS OF NET INCOME
OF $5,000 AND OVER (INDIVIDUAL RETURNS)

Wholly tax-exempt obligations consist of securities the interest on which is wholly exempt from the normal income tax and surtax of the Federal Government. Partially tax-exempt obligations include securities the interest on which is exempt from the normal income tax of the Federal Government and certain issues the interest on the principal amount up to $5,000 is also exempt from surtax. During the calendar year 1932, the wholly tax-exempt obligations of the Federal Government, on which interest was paid, included bonds issued on or before September 1, 1917, First Liberty 3½ percent bonds, Treasury bills, Treasury certificates of indebtedness, Treasury notes, securities issued under the Federal Farm Loan Act, and obligations of United States possessions. Partially tax-exempt obligations of the Federal Government were Liberty 4 and 4¼ percent bonds and all Treasury bonds.

The following tabulation shows the wholly and partially tax-exempt obligations owned and interest received therefrom, segregated by nature of obligation and by net income classes, reported in returns of net income of $5,000 and over.

The amount of interest reported is the total amount received or accrued. Since bond holdings are subject to variation during the year, the amount of bonds reported may include bonds for which no interest was received or accrued, and, vice versa, the interest reported may include interest on bonds which are not included in the amount of bonds reported.

RETURNS ON FORM 1040 WITH NO NET INCOME (INDIVIDUAL RETURNS)

As noted on page 1, the general tables for individual returns in the Statistics of Income do not include data for returns which show no net income. Such returns are filed in accordance with the statutory requirements that every individual with gross income of $5,000 and over, irrespective of the amount of net income or deficit, file an income-tax return. Tabulations prepared from these returns by deficit classes and by sources of income and deductions are shown below. The distribution of the returns by States and Territories and more detailed tabulation of the sources of income and deductions by net deficit classes are shown in basic tables 10 and 11, page 131.

NUMBER OF RETURNS BY COUNTIES, CITIES, AND TOWNSHIPS (INDIVIDUAL RETURNS)

The statistics showing the number of individual income-tax returns for 1932, by counties, cities, and by townships having a population of 1,000 and over in the 1930 census, are issued in a separate mimeographed bulletin entitled "Individual Income Tax Returns for 1932—Number of Returns by States and by Counties, Cities, and Townships," which was released May 7, 1934. Copies may be secured from the Bureau of Internal Revenue, Washington, D.C., upon request. Information on net income and tax liability in individual income-tax returns is not tabulated for smaller civil divisions than States and Territories.

PARTNERSHIP RETURNS OF INCOME

Partnership returns, except for the war excess-profits tax of 1917, are not subject to direct assessment—the income being reported by the individual copartners according to their shares whether distributed or not. A special return of information concerning income is, however, required from partnerships on form 1065.

The number of partnership returns filed for 1917 to 1932, inclusive, is as follows:

Year—	Number	Year—	Number
1917.....	31, 701	1925.....	309, 414
1918.....	100, 728	1926.....	295, 425

CORPORATION INCOME-TAX RETURNS

The number of income-tax returns filed by corporations for 1932 was 508,636, as against 516,404 for 1931. Of the total number of returns for 1932, 82,646 showed net income, 369,238 no net income, and 56,752 no income data. The aggregate net income of all returns showing net income was $2,153,112,819 and the tax liability $286,-034,355.

Separate tabulations for fiscal year returns (not ending December) and for fractional (part) year returns, shown on pages 36 and 37, make it possible to segregate data for calendar year accounting periods and for other accounting periods. In addition, separate tabulations of data from consolidated returns are shown on pages 34 and 35, from which the significance of this form of return can be appraised. Consolidated returns represent the composite returns of affiliated corporations filing under the provisions of the income tax law, which authorize such groups of corporations to submit a consolidated income-tax return of the combined income, deductions, and tax for the affiliated concerns.

DISTRIBUTION BY MAJOR INDUSTRIAL GROUPS OF NUMBER OF RETURNS, INCOME, AND TAX (CORPORATION RETURNS)

The table immediately following shows the returns of corporations distributed by major industrial groups and segregated according to "Returns showing net income," "Returns showing no net income," and "Returns showing no income data—inactive corporations."

Basic table 12, pages 134 and 135, shows the returns distributed by States and Territories and likewise by those with net income, no net income, and no income data (inactive corporations).

In analyzing the data compiled from returns classified under "Finance—banking, insurance, real estate, stock and bond brokers, etc." allowance should be made for the two special deductions from gross income permitted life insurance companies under paragraphs (2) and (4), subsection (a), section 203, Revenue Act of 1932, aggregating $669,630,405. In basic table 13, pages 136 to 157, the special deductions for life insurance companies are included in "Miscellaneous deductions" under "Statutory deductions."

More detailed data by subgroups are shown in basic table 14, pages 148 to 153. Attention is called to the fact that the number of returns under serial number 74, basic table 14, "Domestic service, laundries, hotels, restaurants, etc.," show an increase of 5,312 returns for 1932 over 1931. This was in large part due to classifying in this industrial group concerns giving their business as operating apartments or office buildings, which previously were classified under serial number 86, "Finance—real estate and realty holding companies, realty development, holding, or leasing, realty trusts, etc."

NET LOSS FOR PRIOR YEAR (CORPORATION RETURNS)

The net loss during a given taxable year in a trade or business regularly carried on by the taxpayer, as specifically defined in the Revenue Acts of 1921 to 1928, inclusive, is allowed as a deduction in computing the net income of the taxpayer for the two succeeding taxable years. If such net loss is in excess of the net income (computed without such deduction) for that year, the amount of the excess may be carried over and allowed as a deduction in computing the net income for the next succeeding taxable year. Under the Revenue Act of 1932 net losses for 1931 only are allowed as deductions in computing net income of the taxpayer for 1932.

The excess net losses being of prior origin are not included in the tabulated current year deductions in arriving at the tabulated net income figure. Only the reported "Net loss for prior year," which is taken as a deduction, is tabulated.

"Net loss for prior year" reported and effective as a deduction in determining net income in the corporation returns for 1922 to 1932, inclusive, is given below:

Year—	Amount	Year—	Amount
1922-----	$501, 780, 287	1928-----	$301, 146, 176

INCOME AND PROFITS TAXES PAID TO FOREIGN COUNTRIES OR POSSESSIONS OF THE UNITED STATES (CORPORATION RETURNS)

The amounts reported for tax credit by corporations for income and profits taxes paid foreign countries or possessions of the United States are shown below for the years 1925 to 1932, inclusive. These amounts are tax credits and have not been deducted from the figures on tax shown in the tables in this report. Attention is directed to the changed provisions affecting this credit in section 131 of the Revenue Act of 1932.

DIVIDENDS PAID (CORPORATION RETURNS)

The amounts of cash and stock dividends paid on the capital stock of domestic corporations other than life insurance companies, as reported in the corporation income-tax returns for 1932, are, cash dividends, $3,885,600,731, and stock dividends, $143,076,315. These payments represent a reduction from 1931 of 36.8 percent for cash dividends and of 12.5 percent for stock dividends.

In basic table 12, pages 134 and 135, are shown for 1932 by States, the dividend payments reported on returns showing net income and no net income; in basic table 13, pages 136 to 147, are shown the dividend payments for 1932 by major industrial groups and by corporations reporting net income and no net income; and in basic table 16 pages 160 to 165, the same data are shown for returns by size of total assets. Total dividends distributed by corporations for the years 1922 to 1932, inclusive, are shown below:

COMPILED RECEIPTS AND STATUTORY DEDUCTIONS (CORPORATION RETURNS)

In the table on page 28 there appears a summary of the analysis of compiled receipts and statutory deductions for 451,884 returns of active corporations, classified by corporations submitting and not submitting balance sheets. Similar statistics for all active corporations without segregation as to corporations submitting and not submitting balance sheets by major industrial groups and by returns showing net income and no net income, is presented in basic table 13, pages 136 to 147. In connection with these figures attention is directed to the revision in form 1120, items 2 to 6, for reporting gross sales and gross receipts from other operations. (See form 1120, p. 226.)

Compiled receipts consist of reported taxable income [gross sales, gross receipts from other operations, interest received, rents received, profits from sale of capital assets (real estate, stocks, bonds, etc.), and other items of taxable income grouped as "Miscellaneous receipts"] and nontaxable income items of major importance (dividends received on capital stock of domestic corporations and interest on Federal, State, and municipal bonds). Statutory deductions consist of such items as cost of goods sold, compensation of officers, interest paid, taxes paid other than income tax, bad debts, depreciation and depletion, loss from the sale of capital assets (real estate, stocks, bonds, etc.), and items not classified grouped as "Miscellaneous deductions." The amount tabulated as "Cost of goods sold" includes salaries and wages only when shown specifically in item 2 (c) on the face of the return (see form 1120, p. 226). Salaries and wages which may be allocable to item 2 (c) but which were reported elsewhere on the return were tabulated as "Miscellaneous deductions."

Table 13 also shows the compiled net profit (or compiled net deficit), statutory net income or deficit, net loss for prior year, income tax, and compiled net profit after deducting tax. Compiled net profit is the excess of compiled receipts over statutory deductions, and compiled net deficit is the excess of statutory deductions over compiled receipts. Part 1 of this basic table shows the aggregate data for all returns; part 2, for returns showing net income; and part 3, for returns showing no net income.

For statement of compiled receipts and statutory deductions for all corporations submitting balance sheets distributed by major industrial groups and by returns showing net income and no net income, see table 15, pages 154 to 159, and table 16, pages 160 to 165.

In using data by industrial classes, the peculiarities with respect to income tax returns which prevent a pure industrial classification, as outlined on page 4, should be borne in mind.

² Gross receipts from operations where inventories are not an income-determining factor. Costs are included under "Miscellaneous deductions."

ASSETS AND LIABILITIES (CORPORATION RETURNS)

In the table on page 30 is shown for 392,021 corporation returns out of 451,884 returns of active corporations, a summary statement of the principal assets and liabilities as of December 31, 1932, or at the close of the fiscal year nearest thereto; also a tabulation by net income and deficit classes showing the number of returns and the number of balance sheets tabulated. The difference between the number of balance sheets tabulated and the number of returns represents returns of active corporations that did not submit balance sheets or for which data were of fragmentary nature. In basic table 15, pages 154 to 159, the same data are shown by major industrial groups. This table also includes items of compiled receipts and statutory deductions for active corporations which submitted balance sheets. For descriptive statement of compiled receipts and statutory deductions, see page 27.

In using data by industrial groups the peculiarities with respect to income-tax returns which prevent a pure industrial classification, as outlined on page 4, should be borne in mind.

The following changes in classification of data affect the comparability of asset and liability data over a period of years: Prior to 1929, "Investments other than tax-exempt" were not segregated from "Miscellaneous assets not distributed." Prior to 1930, stocks, bonds other than tax-exempt, loans, mortgages, etc., owned by life insurance companies were classified as "Miscellaneous assets not distributed" and beginning with 1930 as "Investments other than tax-exempt." Moreover, the returns of corporations become more complete each year with respect to the definite allocation of their forms of assets, thus steadily decreasing the proportion tabulated as "Miscellaneous assets not distributed" as well as causing certain shifts as between the principal forms of assets and liabilities. Shifts have been noted between years particularly under "Liabilities" in the amounts reported as "Common stock" and "Preferred stock" due to variations in reporting these data. For balance sheets in which common and preferred stock are not reported separately, the combined amount is tabulated as "Common stock." For balance sheets with no par stock and not reporting capital stock value, the net worth is tabulated under "Surplus and undivided profits."

Items not otherwise distributed are classified as "Miscellaneous assets" and "Miscellaneous liabilities," among which are the following:

Miscellaneous assets.—Copyrights; formulas; good will; patents; trade marks; sinking funds; other funds; deferred charges; organization expenses; prepaid and suspense items; interest, discount, coupons, and dividends receivable; guaranty deposits, and deposits on contracts, meters, and leaseholds; cash value of life insurance. Miscellaneous assets of life insurance companies include market value of real estate and bonds in excess of book value; interest, rents, and premiums due; agents' balances.

Miscellaneous liabilities.—All reserves other than surplus and reserves for depletion, depreciation, and bad debts; deferred and suspense items; funds held in trust; borrowed securities; discount and dividends payable; outstanding coupons and certificates; overdrafts. Miscellaneous liabilities of life insurance companies include the net value of outstanding policies and securities and borrowed money. Miscellaneous liabilities of banks include deposits (time, saving, demand, etc.), and bank notes in circulation.

ASSETS, AND LIABILITIES, COMPILED RECEIPTS, AND STATUTORY DEDUCTIONS BY SIZE OF TOTAL ASSETS (CORPORATION RETURNS)

The following table summarizes certain major items of identical corporations, by total assets classes, including number of returns, total assets, total compiled receipts, compiled net profit or deficit for all returns, and for returns with net income and no net income. These data are compiled from 392,021 returns filed by corporations that submitted balance sheets. The difference between this number and 451,884 of active corporations represents returns of active corporations that did not submit balance sheets, or for which balance sheet data were of a fragmentary nature. In connection with the classification of corporation data by size of total assets, attention is directed to the fact that the balance sheet form "Schedule K" of the corporation income-tax return (reprinted on p. 227) provides, in the reporting of assets, that reserves for depreciation of capital assets be deducted from the gross amount of capital assets and also that reserves for bad debts be deducted from the gross amount of accounts receivable.

In basic table 16, pages 160 to 165, are shown in greater detail the principal assets and liabilities as of December 31, 1932, or at the close of the fiscal year nearest thereto, and the principal items of compiled receipts and statutory deductions. In basic table 17, pages 166 to 182, are shown by major industrial groups and total assets classes selected items of assets and liabilities as of December 31, 1932, or at close of fiscal year nearest thereto, selected items of receipts, compiled net profit or deficit, statutory net income or deficit, and cash dividends paid. For a descriptive statement of assets and liabilities see pages 29 and 31, and of compiled receipts and statutory deductions, see page 27.

CONSOLIDATED RETURNS (CORPORATION RETURNS)

There were 7,426 consolidated income-tax returns filed for 1932 for affiliated corporations, as against 8,495 for 1931. As provided by section 141 (a) and (d), Revenue Acts of 1928 and 1932, applicable to the taxable year 1932 and subsequent taxable years, a consolidated return may be filed where one or more chains of corporations are connected through stock ownership with a common-parent corporation, at least 95 percent of the stock of each of the corporations (except the common parent) being owned directly by one or more of the other corporations, and the common-parent corporation owning directly at least 95 percent of the stock of at least one of the other corporations. Of the consolidated returns for 1932, 1,272 showed net income aggregating $502,380,939. The number of consolidated returns filed was about 1.5 percent of all corporation returns. However, the net income reported in consolidated returns was 23.3 percent of the net income of all returns showing net income, and the tax 23.5 percent of the total tax for all corporations. Attention is directed to the fact that the Revenue Act of 1932 applied an additional rate of three-fourths of 1 percent to the income reported in consolidated returns for 1932, making the rate 14½ percent.

Presented below are tables prepared from the consolidated returns showing the returns distributed by major industrial groups, by net income and deficit classes, and by number of subsidiaries. In interpreting the data contained in these tables it is essential to note that the industrial classification is based on the predominant business of the affiliated corporations for which the consolidated return is filed. If it were possible to segregate the income of the subsidiary or affiliated concerns, the data for such concerns might fall in industrial divisions other than the ones in which they are here included. Attention is also directed to the fact that the data for consolidated returns are included in the general tables of corporation income throughout this report.

² Includes war excess-profits taxes of $101,249,781 on individuals and of $103,887,984 on partnerships.

³ 25 percent reduction provided for in sec. 1200 (a) of Revenue Act of 1924.

² Excludes 7,635 returns of married women made separate from returns of husbands. In 1916 the net income on returns filed separately by husband and wife is combined and the total appears as one return. In all other years the returns of married women filed separately are included in their individual income classes independently of the husband's income.

Footnotes for tables on pp. 43-46

² Excludes data for 1,640,758 returns with net income under $2,000 and aggregate net income of $2,461,137,000.

⁴ See notes 3, 5, and 6.

⁶ Profit from sale of real estate, etc., included in "Business," in 1916.

⁷ Capital net gain of individuals, partnerships, and fiduciaries given special classification for taxation beginning 1922.

⁹ Includes dividends received by individuals, partnerships, fiduciaries, and personal service corporations (1918 to 1921, inclusive); includes stock dividends 1916 to 1919, inclusive.

¹³ According to 1923 Statistics of Income (unrevised).

¹⁴ Included in "All other" deductions in 1917 to 1925, inclusive.

¹⁵ Included in "All other" deductions in 1917 to 1929, inclusive.

¹⁶ Exclusive of returns of married women making separate returns from husbands.

¹ Changes in the revenue acts affecting the comparability of statistical data from income-tax returns of corporations are summarized on pp. 210-213; general explanations appear on pp. 1-5. The period 1909 to 1915 includes, to a limited extent, additions made by audit and delinquent returns filed. Taxes shown for 1909 to 1915, inclusive, are receipts for fiscal year ended June 30, immediately following, as shown in annual reports of Commissioner of Internal Revenue, which receipts include fines, penalties, additional assessments, etc.; 1916 and subsequent years, tax is amount reported on income-tax returns; taxes for 1913 include income tax, $32,456,663; excise tax $10,671,077 (Act of Aug. 5, 1909).

³ Returns showing net income in excess of $5,000 exemption.

⁴ Returns showing net income not in excess of $5,000 exemption or deficit.

⁵ 1915 contains approximately 32,000 returns related to 1914. (See Annual Report Commissioner of Internal Revenue, 1916, p. 26.)

ESTATE-TAX RETURNS

The following tables are compiled from estate-tax returns filed during the year ended December 31, 1933, irrespective of the date of death of the decedent. Returns are not required to be filed until 1 year after the date of death, and under certain conditions further extensions of time are granted for filing. Prior to the effective date of the Revenue Act of 1926 (10:25 a.m., Feb. 26, 1926, Washington, D.C., time) and subsequent to the effective date of the Revenue Act of 1932 (5 p.m., June 6, 1932, Washington, D.C., time) a return was required in the case of every resident decedent whose gross estate as defined in the statute exceeded $50,000 in value at the date of death. During the intervening period (Feb. 26, 1926, to June 6, 1932) a return was required if the gross estate exceeded $100,000 in value at the date of death. A return was required in the case of every non-resident any part of whose estate, regardless of value, was situated at date of death in the United States, within the meaning of the statute.

The tax is imposed not upon the property or upon any particular legacy, devise, or distributive share but upon its transfer. The relationship of the beneficiary to the decedent has no bearing upon the tax liability. The estate tax is not an inheritance tax, although popularly referred to as such, the distinction being that the estate tax is based on an estate in its entirety rather than on the distributive share.

The gross estate as defined by the statute includes certain transfers, such as those made in contemplation of death or intended to take effect at or after death. The net estate is the amount of the gross estate less the sum of the authorized deductions, and in the case of resident decedents a specific exemption. Estates of decedents subsequent to the effective date of the Revenue Act of 1932 are subject to two estate taxes, the tax levied under the provisions of the Revenue Act of 1926 and an additional estate tax levied by the Revenue Act of 1932. The tax under the Revenue Act of 1926 applies to net estates after deduction of a specific exemption of $100,000 and a tax credit is allowed for estate, inheritance, legacy, or succession taxes paid to any of the several States, Territories, or the District of Columbia, and gift taxes paid to the Federal Government. The additional tax under the Revenue Act of 1932 applies to net estates after deduction of a specific exemption of $50,000 and the tax is equal to the excess of (1) the amount of a tentative tax computed at rates in the 1932 act, ranging from 1 percent on net estates in excess of $10,000 to 45 percent on net estates in excess of $10,000,000, over (2) the amount of tax computed at rates in the Revenue Act of 1926 (that is, before deduction of tax credits provided).

Under the Revenue Act of 1926 estates are allowed a tax credit not to exceed 80 percent of the total Federal estate tax for estate, inheritance, legacy, or succession taxes paid to any of the several States, Territories, or the District of Columbia. Under the Revenue Act of 1924 the tax credit was limited to 25 percent of the total Federal estate tax. Prior to the Revenue Act of 1924 this tax credit was not allowed. No credit for estate, inheritance, legacy, or succession taxes is allowable against the additional estate tax imposed by the Revenue Act of 1932.

The tables are based on the returns as filed and prior to any adjustments that may be determined upon investigation and audit. The tax liability reported does not correspond with the actual receipts of taxes during the period for the reason that payments may be made at a later date than the filing of the return, and for the reason that field investigation and office audit may disclose deficiency taxes or excess payments which are not reflected in these tables.

Data included in these tables are compiled from returns filed under the 1926 act only (deaths before 5 p.m. June 6, 1932) and from returns filed under the combined provisions of the Revenue Acts of 1926 and 1932 (deaths after June 6, 1932). In order to maintain comparability with data for preceding years, tabulations of data by net estate classes have been made corresponding to the successive tax brackets specified in the Revenue Act of 1926 on the basis of the net estate arrived at under the provisions of that act rather than the provisions of the 1932 Act.

GIFT-TAX RETURNS

The Revenue Act of 1932 imposed a tax upon the transfer of property by gift payable by the donor at rates varying from three-fourths of 1 percent on net gifts in excess of $10,000 to 33½ percent on net gifts in excess of $10,000,000.

The only similar tax previously in effect was levied under the Revenue Act of 1924, and was in effect from June 2, 1924, to December 31, 1925. During these years the number of gift-tax returns filed, net amount of taxable gifts and total gift, tax were as follows:

	1924	1925
Number of gift tax returns filed (resident and nonresident).....	1, 528	848
Net amount of taxable gifts.....	$170, 181, 677	$91, 289, 373
Total gift tax.....	$7, 242, 136	$2, 714, 924

The following tables are compiled from gift tax returns filed during the year ended December 31, 1933, for gifts made after June 6 to December 31, 1932. The act provides that any citizen or resident of the United States who makes any transfer by gift which exceeds $5,000 in value to any one donee, as well as any individual who makes any gift of a future interest in property, regardless of its value, is required to file a return. A return is required even though, because of authorized deductions, no tax liability accrues. Nonresident aliens are similarly required to file returns when such transfers by gift are made of property situated within the United States.

In the tables, the term "total gifts" represents the value of the property transferred less any money consideration, if any, received in exchange, provided there exists a donative intent. The term "net gifts" represents the total gifts less the following:

(1) An exemption of $5,000 for each donee (except in cases of future interest);

(2) In the case of a resident or citizen, a specific exemption not in excess of $50,000; and,

(3) Charitable, public, or similar gifts specified in the statute.

The tables are based on the returns as filed and prior to adjustments which may result from audit. The tax liability shown in the tables may not correspond with the actual receipts of taxes during the filing period for the reason that the tax reported on the returns may be paid at a later date, and for the further reason that field investigation and office audit may disclose deficiency taxes or excess payments which are not reflected in these tables. For statistical purposes, the returns are tabulated by the net gift classes corresponding to the successive tax brackets specified in the Revenue Act of 1932.

The form of property constituting gifts shown in the tables are real estate, stocks and bonds, cash, insurance, and miscellaneous. Some of the items tabulated as "miscellaneous" are: Articles of personal adornment; articles of art, literature, etc.; forgiveness of debts; donor's inheritance in estate; residuary income under trust; annuity under trust; business interests; copyright on books; claims, United States Alien Property Custodian; etc.

Under "Nature of deductions" there are tabulated charitable, public, and similar gifts, and the specific exemption and exclusions.

Tables, exhibiting in greater detail information from individual and corporation income-tax returns, are continued in the following pages. For individual returns they include data by States and Territories, by income class, by sex and family relationship, by special sources of income, and by industrial groups; also interest and principal reported for wholly and partially tax-exempt obligations of the Federal Government, United States possessions and obligations of States and Territories and political subdivisions thereof. The data from corporation returns are presented by States and Territories, by industrial groups, by receipts and disbursements, and by size of assets and liabilities.

There is also included a synopsis of income and profits tax rates, estate and gift tax rates, credits and exemptions under the Revenue Acts of 1909 to 1932, affecting the comparability of the data in the Statistics of Income.

Respectfully,

WRIGHT MATTHEWS,
Acting Commissioner of Internal Revenue.

H. MORGENTHAU, Jr.,
Secretary of the Treasury.

² Capital net gain and loss are reported as provided by law on sale of assets held more than 2 years. (See pp. 8 and 9.) For explanation of changes in 1932 act affecting the deduction of losses of sales of stocks and bonds, see p. 209.

³ Includes "taxes paid" and "interest paid" (see tables 8 and 8A) and other deductions.

³ Gross income corresponds to total income as reported on face of the return, plus the cost of goods sold.

⁵ Not available.

² (a) Under the Revenue Acts of 1913, 1916, and 1917, individuals were required to file returns on a calendar year basis, while under the Revenue Act of 1918 and subsequent years, returns are permitted for a fiscal year other than that ending Dec. 31. (b) For the years 1913, 1914, and 1915, citizens or residents of the United States whose net income was less than $20,000 and for whom a full return was made by withholding agents, were not required to file returns. (c) For 1921 and subsequent years citizens deriving a large portion of their gross income from sources within a possession of the United States are required to file returns for all income derived from sources within the United States or income from sources within or without the United States received within the United States, regardless of amount. (See sec. 262 of the Revenue Acts of 1921, 1924, and 1926, and sec. 251 of the Revenue Acts of 1928 and 1932.) (d) For 1925 and subsequent years American citizens who are nonresidents of the United States for more than 6 months of the year are not required to report earned income from sources without the United and are not required to file returns unless their gross income, exclusive of earned income from sources without the United States, exceeds $5,000; or unless their net income, exclusive of earned income from sources without the United States, exceeds the amount indicated above under "Individuals required to file returns." (See also (c) above.) For 1932 and subsequent years income from sources without the United States does not include amounts paid by the United States or any agency thereof. (See sec. 116 (a), Revenue Act of 1932.)

⁴ Husband and wife each to file a return unless combined income is included in joint return.

⁵ Net income means "statutory" net income, i. e., the excess of gross income over deductions as defined in the various revenue acts. Net income has been adjusted from time to time as follows:

(a) Amortization of buildings, machinery, equipment, or other facilities constructed or acquired on or after Apr. 6, 1917, for the production of articles contributing to the prosecution of the war is included to a reasonable amount in business deductions for 1918, 1919, 1920, and 1921.

(b) Contributions to charitable and scientific organizations, etc., not exceeding 15 percent of the net income before deducting the contributions, are deducted for 1917 and subsequent years. For unlimited deduction of contributions see sec. 214 (10), Revenue Acts of 1924 and 1926, and sec. 120, Revenue Acts of 1928 and 1932.

(c) Losses sustained in transactions entered into for profit but not connected with business or trade are not deductible for 1913 to 1915, inclusive. For 1916 and 1917 such losses are deductible to the extent of the aggregate income from such transactions, for 1918 to 1931, inclusive, such losses are wholly deductible, excepting that for 1921 and subsequent years the loss, if incurred through the sale of capital assets held for more than 2 years, is deductible from total tax, to the extent of 12½ percent of the loss. (See table C.) For 1932, losses from sales or exchanges of stocks or bonds (other than capital assets held for more than 2 years, and other than bonds issued by a government or political subdivision thereof) are allowed only to the extent of the gains from such sales or exchanges. The Revenue Act of 1932 provides that any excess loss thus disallowed, computed without regard to any losses sustained during the preceding taxable year, is, to an amount not in excess of the taxpayer's net income for the taxable year, considered as loss sustained in the succeeding taxable year from sales or exchanges of stocks or bonds other than capital assets. (See sec. 23 (r) (2), Revenue Act of 1932.) However, section 218 (b) of the National Industrial Recovery Act repeals, effective as of Jan. 1, 1933, section 23 (r) (2) of the Revenue Act of 1932, thereby limiting the application of losses from the sale or exchange of stocks or bonds (other than capital assets) to gains from similar transactions during the same taxable year and prohibiting the carrying forward and application of such losses to gains from similar transactions in the succeeding taxable year. Under the Revenue Act of 1932, the limitation on the deduction of losses from sale or exchange of stocks or bonds does not apply to persons dealing in securities or carrying on the banking business (see sec. 23 (r) (3), Revenue Act of 1932). However, sec. 218 (c) of the National Industrial Recovery Act amends, effective as of Jan. 1, 1933, section 23 (r) (3) of the Revenue Act of 1932, by removing the exemption from the stock-loss limitation allowed to persons carrying on the banking business, thereby limiting the application of losses from the sale or exchange of stocks or bonds (other than capital assets) to gains from similar transactions and prohibiting the use of such losses to reduce income from other sources. Section 218 (d) of the National Industrial Recovery Act also amends, effective as of Jan. 1, 1933, section 182 (a) of the Revenue Act of 1932 by removing the privilege of individual members of a partnership to reduce their individual net incomes by their proportionate shares of a net loss incurred by the partnership through the sale or exchange of stocks or bonds (other than capital assets).

(d) Net loss for prior year resulting from the operation of any trade or business regularly carried on by the taxpayer; in the case of a net loss for any taxable year beginning after Oct. 31, 1918, and ending prior to Jan. 1, 1920, the Revenue Act of 1918 provides for the deduction of such loss from net income of the preceding year, a redetermination of taxes for the preceding year being made. When the net loss exceeds the net income for the preceding year, the amount of such excess is to be deducted from the net income of the succeeding taxable year. The Revenue Acts of 1921 to 1928, inclusive, provide that net loss in any year beginning after Dec. 31, 1920, may be deducted from the net income of the succeeding taxable year, and if such net loss exceeds the net income for the succeeding year, the amount of such excess is to be allowed in the next succeeding year. The Revenue Act of 1932 provides that a net loss for the year 1930 and succeeding years shall be allowed as a deduction in computing net income for the next succeeding taxable year only. (See sec. 23 (i) and sec. 117, Revenue Act of 1932.) However, sec. 218 (a) of the National Industrial Recovery Act repeals, effective as of Jan. 1, 1933, secs. 23 (i) and 117 of the Revenue Act of 1932, thereby removing the privilege of deducting from the net income for the current taxable year a net loss for the preceding taxable year.

⁷ No provision for head of family in Revenue Act of 1913. Exemption prorated for period Mar. 1 to Dec. 31, 1913.

⁸ For each dependent under 18 years of age or incapable of self-support because mentally or physically defective.

¹⁰ Tax for 1923 reduced 25 percent by credit or refund under sec. 1200 (a) of the Revenue Act of 1924.

¹¹ For net incomes of $5,000 and over, personal exemption is $2,000.

¹² For 1922 and subsequent years, if nonresident alien is resident of contiguous country (Canada or Mexico), $400 credit allowed for each dependent.

¹⁴ See joint resolution of Congress, No. 133, approved by the President Dec. 16, 1929, reducing rates of income tax for 1929.

1924	Taxpayer may elect to be taxed at 12½ percent on capital net gain if the tax would be greater than 12½ percent by including capital net gain in ordinary net income. (Loss in ordinary net income may be deducted from capital net gain and the balance taxed at 12½ percent.)	Capital net loss may be reported apart from ordinary net income and a tax credit of 12½ percent of the capital net loss taken, if the tax thus produced is not less than the tax would be if the capital net loss were deducted from ordinary net income. ¹ In excess of $3,000 for nonresident aliens.

² Nonresident aliens having business with invested capital reported only that proportion of invested capital which net income from sources within the United States was of the entire net income.

⁶ Tax for 1923 reduced 25 percent by credit or refund under sec. 1290 (a) of the Revenue Act of 1924.

⁷ For 1932 and subsequent years the taxpayer may elect to deduct the taxes paid to foreign countries or United States possessions (with certain limitations) from the total tax liability, or to include the entire amount of the taxes paid to foreign countries or United States possessions in deductions against gross income. (See sec. 131, Revenue Act of 1932.)

Revenue Act	Income year	War-profits tax ³
		Credit	Taxable income	Rate (per-cent)
1918 (Feb. 24, 1919).....	1918.....	$3,000 ⁴ plus either an amount equal to the average pre-war net income plus or minus 10 per cent of the increase or decrease of invested capital ⁵ for the taxable year as compared with average pre-war invested capital, or 10 per cent of the invested capital for the taxable year, whichever is greater. ¹⁵	Net income in excess of war-profits credits.	80 (less amount of excess-profits tax).

² Specific credit allowable to domestic corporations with net income of $25,000 or less for 1921 to 1931, inclusive, except domestic corporations deriving a large portion of their gross income from sources within a possession of the United States for 1928 and subsequent years; not allowable to foreign corporations for 1918 and subsequent years.

⁴ Net income means "statutory" net income, i.e., the excess of gross income over deductions as defined in the various revenue acts. Foreign corporations report only net income from sources within the United States; for 1921 and subsequent years domestic corporations deriving a large portion of their gross income from sources within a possession of the United States report only income from sources within the United States or income from sources within or without the United States received within the United States (see sec. 262 (b) of the Revenue Acts of 1921, 1924, and 1926 and sec. 251 (b) of the Revenue Acts of 1928 and 1932). Net income has been adjusted from time to time as follows:

(a) Amortization of buildings, machinery, equipment, or other facilities constructed or acquired on or after Apr. 6, 1917, for the production of articles contributing to the prosecution of the war, is included to a reasonable amount in business deductions for 1918, 1919, 1920, and 1921.

(b) Dividends on stock of domestic corporations (other than those deriving a large portion of their gross income from sources within a possession of the United States, 1921 and subsequent years, and other than China Trade Act corporations, 1922 and subsequent years, and other than corporations exempt from tax for 1932 and subsequent years) were entirely tax exempt under the Revenue Acts of 1909, 1918, and subsequent years, as well as dividends on stock of foreign corporations receiving a certain amount of income from sources within the United States under the Revenue Acts of 1909, 1918, and subsequent years.

(c) Losses sustained during a taxable year and not compensated for by insurance or otherwise, are entirely deductible, except that for 1932 and subsequent years losses from sales or exchanges of stocks or bonds (other than capital assets and other than bonds issued by a government or political subdivision thereof) are allowed only to the extent of the gains from such sales or exchanges. The Revenue Act of 1932 provides that any excess loss thus disallowed, computed without regard to any losses sustained during the preceding taxable year, is, to an amount not in excess of the taxpayer's net income for the taxable year, considered as loss sustained in the succeeding taxable year from sales or exchanges of stocks or bonds other than capital assets. The limitation on the deduction of losses from sales or exchanges of stocks or bonds does not apply to dealers in securities, banks, or trust companies. (See Sec. 23 (r), Revenue Act of 1932.) However, sec. 218 (b) of the National Industrial Recovery Act repeals, effective as of Jan. 1, 1933, sec. 23 (r) (2) of the Revenue Act of 1932, thereby limiting the application of losses from the sale or exchange of stocks or bonds (other than capital assets) to gains from similar transactions during the same taxable year and prohibiting the carrying forward and application of such losses to gains from similar transactions in the succeeding taxable year.

(d) Net loss for prior year resulting from the operation of any trade or business regularly carried on by the taxpayer: In the case of a net loss for any taxable year beginning after Oct. 31, 1918, and ending prior to Jan. 1, 1920, the Revenue Act of 1918 provides for the deduction of such loss from the net income of the preceding year, a redetermination of taxes for the preceding year being made. When the net loss exceeds the net income for the preceding year the amount of such excess is to be deducted from the net income of the succeeding taxable year. The Revenue Acts of 1921 to 1928, inclusive, provide that net loss in any year beginning after Dec. 31, 1920, may be deducted from the net income of the succeeding taxable year, and if such net loss exceeds the net income for the succeeding year, the amount of such excess is to be allowed in the next succeeding year. The Revenue Act of 1932 provides that a net loss for the year 1930 and succeeding years shall be allowed as a deduction in computing net income for one succeeding taxable year only. However, sec. 218 (a) of the National Industrial Recovery Act repeals, effective as of Jan. 1, 1933, secs. 23 (i) and 117 of the Revenue Act of 1932, thereby removing the privilege of deducting from the net income for the current taxable year, a net loss for the preceding taxable year.

(e) For insurance companies, see special provisions in the various revenue acts.

⁵ The $3,000 credit not allowable to foreign corporations.

⁶ Invested capital within the meaning of the statute is the capital actually paid in to the corporation by the stockholders, plus the earned surplus and/or undivided profits (exclusive of profits for the current year) and exclusive of inadmissible assets as defined in the revenue acts. (See sec. 207, Revenue Act of 1917, and secs. 325 and 326, Revenue Act of 1918.) For 1917, foreign corporations reported that proportion of invested capital which net income from sources within the United States was of the entire net income. For the years 1918 to 1921, inclusive, it was not necessary for foreign corporations to report invested capital, and for the year 1921 it was not necessary for corporations deriving a large portion of their gross income from sources within a possession of the United States to report invested capital. (See note 3.)

⁷ The $3,000 credit not allowable to domestic corporations deriving a large portion of their gross income from sources within a possession of the United States.

⁸ Foreign corporations were not allowed to deduct income taxes paid to foreign countries either as a tax credit or in general deductions for the years 1918, 1919, and 1920. Beginning with 1921, the credit cannot exceed the proportion of the total tax against which the credit is taken that the taxpayer's net income from sources without the United States bears to the entire net income. This credit does not apply to foreign corporations or to domestic corporations deriving a large portion of their gross income from sources within a possession of the United States, but to such corporations these taxes are allowable as a deduction from gross income if imposed upon income from sources within the United States. For the years 1921 to 1931, inclusive, the amount of taxes paid to foreign countries or United States possessions in excess of that deducted as a tax credit is permitted to be included in deductions against gross income. (See note 14.)

⁹ Not allowable to China Trade Act corporations for 1922 and subsequent years.

¹⁰ For 1922 and subsequent years corporations are allowed, as a credit against net income, the amount received as interest upon obligations of the United States which is included in gross income (e.g., see sec. 236 (a), Revenue Act of 1924). For 1922 and subsequent years China Trade Act corporations are entitled to a specific credit. (See sec. 264 (a), China Trade Act, 1922.)

¹¹ Income of insurance companies, exclusive of mutual companies other than life, taxable at 12½ per cent.

¹² See joint resolution of Congress No. 133, approved by the President Dec. 16, 1929, reducing rates of income tax for 1929.

¹³ The rate of tax on consolidated returns for 1932 and 1933 is 14½ per cent.

¹⁵ If corporation was not in existence during the whole of at least one calendar year during the pre-war period, the credit (with certain exceptions) shall be the sum of $3,000 and an amount equal to the same percentage of invested capital for the taxable year as the average percentage of net income to invested capital for the pre-war period of representative corporations but such amount shall in no case be less than 10 per cent of the invested capital of the taxpayer for the taxable year. (See sec. 311, Revenue Act of 1918.)

NOTE.—For the year 1917 there was also a tax of 10 per cent upon that portion of the total net income remaining undistributed 6 months after the close of the taxable year, in excess of the income actually employed in the business, or invested in obligations of the United States issued after Sept. 1, 1917.

For the years 1918 to 1920, inclusive, a corporation that permitted an unreasonable accumulation of profits was not subject to the ordinary corporation income tax but the individual stockholders were taxed upon their proportionate shares of its net income.

For the years 1921 to 1923, inclusive, an additional tax of 25 per cent was imposed upon the taxable net income of a corporation where it was shown that there had been an evasion of surtax as the result of an unreasonable accumulation of profits. This additional tax was increased to 50 per cent for 1924 and subsequent years, with the provision for 1926 and subsequent years that the 50 per cent additional tax shall not apply if all the shareholders of the corporation include in their gross income their entire distributive shares, whether distributed or not, of the net income of the corporation for such year.

INSTRUCTIONS

The Instructions Numbered 1 to 20 Correspond with the Item Numbers on the First Page of the Return

1. INCOME FROM SALARIES, WAGES, COMMISSIONS, ETC.

Enter as Item 1 on page 1 of the return, all salaries or other compensation credited to or received from outside sources. Use a separate line for each entry, giving the information required.

Any amount claimed as a deduction for necessary expenses against salaries, etc., such as traveling expenses while away from home in the pursuit of a trade or business, should be fully explained in Schedule F on page 2 of the return, or on an attached statement. Traveling expenses ordinarily include expenditures for railroad fares, meals, and lodging.

2. INCOME FROM BUSINESS OR PROFESSION

If you own a business, or practiced a profession on your own account, fill in Schedule A on page 2 of the return, and enter the net income (or loss) as Item 2 on page 1 of the return.

This schedule should include income from: (a) Sale of merchandise or products of manufacturing, mining, construction, and agriculture; (b) Business service, such as hotel, restaurant, and garage service; (c) Professional services, such as dentistry, law, or medicine; (d) General, for any income in the earning of which you incurred expenses for material, labor, supplies, etc.

Farmer's income schedule.—If you are a farmer and keep no books of account, or keep books on a cash basis, obtain from the Collector, and attach to this return, Form 1040F, Schedule of Farm Income and Expenses, and enter the net farm income as Item 2 on page 1 of this return. If your farm books of account are kept on an accrual basis, the filing of Form 1040F is optional.

Installment sales.—If the installment method is used, attach to this return a schedule showing separately for the years 1929, 1930, 1931, and 1932 the following: (a) Gross sales; (b) Cost of goods sold; (c) Gross profits; (d) Percentage of profits to gross sales; (e) Total of gross profits; and (f) Gross profit on account collected. See Section 44 of the Revenue Act of 1932.

Kind of business.—Describe the business or profession in the space provided at the top of the return, under "General description," "Drug store," "Laundry," "doctor," "lawyer," "farmer," etc.

Total receipts.—Enter on line 1 of Schedule A the total receipts, less any discounts or allowances, from all sources, such as cash, checks, and credit.

Inventories.—If engaged in a trade or business in which the production, purchase, or sale of merchandise is an income-producing factor, inventories of merchandise on hand at the beginning and at the close of the taxable year, which may be valued at cost, or cost or market, whichever is lower.

Salaries.—Enter on line 10 all salaries not included as "Labor" on line 2, except compensation of kind of yourself or your dependent minor children, or of husband or wife if a joint return is filed, which is not deductible.

Interest.—Enter on line 11 interest on business indebtedness. Do not include interest to or from an individual, partnership, or estate.

Taxes.—Enter on line 12 taxes on business property or for carrying on business. Do not include taxes assessed against local benefits of a kind tending to increase the value of the property assessed, nor Federal income taxes.

Losses.—Enter on line 13 losses incurred in the trade or business, if not compensated for by insurance or otherwise and not made good by repairs claimed as a deduction. If the replacement method is used, the loss or gains should be explained in the table at the foot of page 2 of the return.

Bad debts.—Enter on line 14 debts, or portions thereof, arising from sales or services that have been made, or portions thereof, which have been determined to be worthless and charged off within the year, or such reasonable amount as has been added to a reserve for bad debts within the year.

A debt previously charged off as bad, if subsequently collected, must be returned as income for the year in which collected.

Depreciation.—Enter on line 15 the amount claimed as depreciation by reason of exhaustion, wear and tear of property used in the trade or business, or as obsolescence or depletion, and explain in the table at the foot of page 2 how this amount was determined. If obsolescence is claimed, explain why the useful life is less than the actual life.

The amount of depreciation on property acquired by purchase should be determined upon the basis of the original cost (not replacement cost) of the property and the probable number of years remaining of useful life, except if the property was purchased prior to March 1, 1913, it will be computed on the fair market value of the property at the time of its original cost, whichever is greater. If the property was acquired in any other manner than by purchase, see Section 23 (k), (l), (m), and 114 of the Revenue Act of 1932.

In case a deduction is claimed for depreciation on property used for oil or gas wells, or timber, see Sections 23 (k), (l), (m), and 114 of the Revenue Act of 1932.

Do not claim any deduction for depreciation in the value of a building occupied by you as a dwelling, or for improvements on a building (exclusive of improvements thereon), nor on stocks, bonds, and securities.

Rent, repairs, and other expenses.—Enter on line 16 rent on business property in which the business is conducted, and other expenses incurred in a usable condition, and other necessary business expenses not classified above, such as heat, light, and fire insurance. Do not include rent for a dwelling occupied by you for residential purposes, or for repairs to or for furniture, expenditures for replacements or permanent improvements to property, or personal, living, or family expenses.

Deficit.—If the total on line 16 shows a deficit, such amount should be preceded by a minus sign or written in red ink.

3. INTEREST ON BANK DEPOSITS, ETC.

Enter as Item 3 all interest received or credited to your account during the taxable year on bank deposits, notes, mortgages, and corporation bonds, except interest on bonds upon which a tax was paid at the source. Interest on bonds is considered income when due and payable.

4. INTEREST ON TAX-FREE COVENANT BONDS

Enter as Item 4 bond interest upon which a tax was paid at source. Such tax (2 per cent of the interest entered in Item 4) may be claimed as a credit in Item 39 of the return.

5 AND 6. INCOME FROM PARTNERSHIPS, SYNDICATES, POOLS, ETC., AND FIDUCIARIES

Enter as Item 5 your share (whether received or not) of the profits of a partnership, syndicate, pool, etc., and as Item 6 income from an estate or trust, except that the share of (a) capital gain or loss computed as provided in Instruction 5a shall be entered as Item 7, and (b) the share of the net income of the United States shall be included in Schedule E, and (c) profits which consisted of dividend on stock of domestic corporations shall be included in Item 10 (a) and (b) only.

If the taxable year on the basis of which you file your return fails to coincide with the normal or fiscal year of the partnership, syndicate, pool, etc., or estate, you should include in your return your distributive share of the net profits for such accounting period ending within your taxable year.

7. INCOME FROM RENTS AND ROYALTIES

Fill in Schedule B, giving the information requested. If you received property in lieu of which you received the income as though the rent had been received in cash, (a) gain received as rent on a corporate basis should be reported as income for the year in which disposition of (unless your return shows otherwise) the property occurred, and (b) the loss, if any, should be reported as a deduction for the year in which the property was disposed of.

Enter as depreciation the amount of wear and tear, or depletion sustained during the taxable year 1932, and explain in the table at the foot of page 2.

Other expenses, such as repairs, taxes, insurance, light, heat, labor, and other necessary expenses of this character should be itemized.

8. PROFIT FROM SALE OF REAL ESTATE, BONDS, ETC.

Describe the property briefly in Schedule C, and state the price received, or the fair market value of the property received in exchange. Expenses computed with the sale may be deducted in computing the profit or loss.

If gain or loss for the taxable year 1932, whether both ends and March 1, 1913, value must be shown and full information given as to loss or gain.

value was determined. If the amount shown as cost is other than actual cash cost of the property sold, full details must be furnished regarding the acquisition of the property.

Enter as depreciation the amount of wear and tear, obsolescence, or depletion which has been allowed (but not less than the amount allowable) in respect of such property since date of acquisition, or since March 1, 1913, if the property was acquired before that date. In no case, if the property was acquired before March 1, 1913, and if the cost of such property is greater than its fair market value as of that date, the cost shall be reduced by the depreciation actually sustained before that date.

Deductions for losses from sales or exchanges of stocks and bonds which are not capital assets as defined in Section 101 of the 1932 Act shall be allowed only to the extent of the gains from such sales or exchanges (including gains which may be derived by a taxpayer from the retirement of his own obligations). See Section 23 (c) and (d) of the Revenue Act of 1932.

Subsequent improvements, including expenditures for additions, improvements, and repairs made to restore the property or prolong its useful life.

No loss shall be recognized in any sale or other disposition of stock or security where you have acquired substantially identical stock or securities within 30 days before or after the date of such sale, unless you are a dealer in securities.

In case the amount to be entered in Column 5 is a deductible loss, such amount should be preceded by a minus sign or written in red ink.

9a. CAPITAL NET GAIN OR LOSS

If desired, a capital net gain derived from the sale or exchange of capital assets may be computed separately and a tax of 12½ per cent paid thereon in lieu of the normal tax and surtax. The term "capital net gain" means the excess of the total normal tax and surtax computed on the capital deductions over the gross income computed without capital gain.

In case a capital net gain is entered as Item 9a, the total normal tax and surtax shall be reduced by 12½ per cent of such capital net gain; but in no case shall the tax computed in this manner be less than the total normal tax and surtax that would be imposed without the benefit of this provision. The term "capital net gain" means the excess of the sum of the capital losses plus the capital gains over the total normal tax and surtax.

The term "capital assets" means property held by you for more than two years (whether or not connected with your trade or business), but does not include your stock in trade or other property held by you, or property held by you primarily for sale in the course of your trade or business.

Enter in Schedule 20 in accordance with Instruction 5, if the tax is computed under this provision, and enter 12½ per cent of the capital net gain or loss as Item 37 on page 1 of the return. In case of a capital net loss, the amount of such loss and the credit claimed shall be preceded by a minus sign or written in red ink. See Section 101 of the Revenue Act of 1932.

9. INTEREST ON LIBERTY BONDS, ETC.

Schedule E should be filled in if you own any of the obligations or securities enumerated in Column 1. Enter in Column 2 the principal amounts of the obligations owned and claimed as deductions, and in Column 3 the interest to your account during the year on these obligations, including your share of such interest received from a partnership, or an estate or trust.

Interest on all coupons falling due within the taxable year will be considered as income for the year, where the bonds are kept on a cash receipts and disbursements basis. If the bonds are kept on an accrual basis, report the actual amount of interest accrued on the obligations owned during the taxable year.

If the obligations enumerated on line (d) are owned in excess of the exemption of $5,000, Column 5 should be filled in, and the total of the interest reported on line (d), Column 3, entered as Item 9 on page 1 of the return.

10. DIVIDENDS

Enter as Item 10 (a) the amount received as dividends (1) from a domestic corporation subject to taxation under Title I of the Revenue Act of 1932 other than a corporation entitled to the benefits of Section 251 of the Act of 1932 and other than a corporation organized under the Foreign Trade Act of 1932, or (2) from a foreign corporation when it is shown to the satisfaction of the Commissioner that more than 50 per cent of the gross income of such foreign corporation for the three-year period ending with the close of its taxable year preceding the declaration of such dividends (or for such part of such period as the corporation has been in existence) was derived from sources within the United States, and (b) the amount of such dividends received on stock owned by a partnership, or an estate or trust. Enter as Item 10 (b) dividends from a domestic corporation not subject to taxation under Title I of the Revenue Act of 1932, and as Item 10 (c) dividends from a foreign corporation other than a foreign corporation described in (2) of this paragraph.

11. OTHER INCOME

Enter as Item 11 all other taxable income from which no space is provided on the return.

12. TOTAL INCOME

Enter as Item 12 the net amount of Items 1 to 11, inclusive, after deducting any expenses reported in Item 1, and losses in Items 5, 7, and 8.

13. INTEREST PAID

Enter as Item 13 interest paid on personal indebtedness as distinguished from business indebtedness (which should be deducted under Schedule A or B). Do not include interest on indebtedness incurred or continued to purchase or carry obligations or securities of the United States, or interest wholly exempt from taxation or interest on indebtedness incurred or continued in connection with the purchasing or carrying of an annuity.

14. TAXES PAID

Enter as Item 14 personal taxes and taxes paid on property not used in your business or profession, not including taxes on the actual benefit of a kind tending to increase the value of the property assessed. Do not include Federal income taxes, taxes imposed upon your interest as shareholder of a corporation which are paid by the corporation, or taxes on the income of a partnership, or income taxes claimed as a credit in Item 40. No deduction is allowable for any portion of foreign income and profits taxes if a credit is claimed in Item 40.

Any deduction on account of taxes should be explained in Schedule F.

15. LOSSES BY FIRE, STORM, ETC.

Enter as Item 15 losses of property not connected with your business or profession, sustained during the year from fire, storm, shipwreck, or other casualty, or from theft, and if not compensated for by insurance or otherwise. See Section 23 (c) of the Revenue Act of 1932.

Explain losses claimed in the table provided on page 2 of the return.

16. BAD DEBTS

Enter as Item 16 all bad debts other than those claimed as a deduction in Schedule A. State in Schedule F, (a) of what the debts consisted, (b) when they were created, (c) when they became due, (d) what efforts were made to collect, and (e) how they were actually determined to be worthless.

17. CONTRIBUTIONS

Enter as Item 17 contributions or gifts made within the taxable year to any corporation, or trust, or community chest, fund, or foundation, organized and operated exclusively for religious, charitable, scientific, literary, or educational purposes, or for the prevention of cruelty to children or animals, no part of the net earnings of which inures to the benefit of any private shareholder or individual. The amount claimed shall be reduced by 15 per cent of the income computed without the benefit of this deduction.

A fiduciary filing the return for an estate in process of administration may claim as a deduction the contributions or gifts made by the estate for the year 1932. Last organizations and amounts contributed to each in Schedule F.

18. OTHER DEDUCTIONS

Enter as Item 18 any other authorized deductions for which no space is provided on the return, except deduction for net loss for 1931, which should be entered as Item 7. Do not deduct losses incurred in transactions which were not connected with your trade or business, nor entered into for profit.

If the return is filed for an estate in process of administration, there should be deducted the amount of any income paid or credited to a beneficiary. Any deduction claimed should be explained in Schedule F.

19. TOTAL DEDUCTIONS IN ITEMS 13 TO 18

Enter as Item 19 the total of Items 13 to 18, inclusive. This amount should not include any deduction claimed in Schedule A or B.

20. NET INCOME

Enter as Item 20 the net income, which is obtained by deducting Item 19 from Item 12. The net income shall be computed on the basis of the taxable year in accordance with the method of accounting regularly employed in keeping your books, unless such method does not clearly reflect your income.

21. PERSONS REQUIRED TO MAKE A RETURN OF INCOME

An income tax return must be filed by every citizen of the United States whether residing at home or abroad, and every person residing in the United States though not a citizen thereof, whose gross income for the taxable year 1932 amounted to $5,000, or whose net income amounted to—

(a) $1,000 if single or if married and not living with husband or wife;

(b) $2,500 if married and living with husband or wife; or

(c) More than the personal exemption if status of taxpayer changes. If an individual is single and the net income, including that of dependent minor children, if any, is $1,000 or over, or if the gross income is $5,000 or over, a return must be filed. If the combined net income of husband and wife, and dependent minor children, if any, is $2,500 or over, or if their combined gross income is $5,000 or over, all must be reported on a joint return, or separate returns of husband and wife. In case the husband and wife elect to file separate returns and their combined net income is $5,000 or over, each shall make a return on Form 1040.

If the net income of a decedent to the date of his death was $1,000 or over, if unmarried, or $2,500 or over, if married and living with husband or wife, or if his gross income for the period over which the executor or administrator shall make a return for him on Form 1040 or 1040A.

Income of the estates of decedents after final settlement, (b) trusts, whether by will or deed, for unmarried persons or persons with contingent interests; or income held under the terms of the will or trust for future distribution, not taxed to the fiduciary as a single person, except that from the income of a decedent's estate there should be deducted any amount properly paid or credited to a beneficiary.

22. PERSONAL EXEMPTION AND CREDIT FOR DEPENDENTS

A single person, or a married person not living with husband or wife, may claim an exemption of $1,000. A person who was the head of a family or was married and living with husband or wife during the entire taxable year, may claim an exemption of $2,000. If husband and wife file separate returns, the exemption may be taken by either or divided between them.

A "head of a family" is an individual who actually supports and maintains in one household one or more individuals who are closely connected with him by blood relationship, relationship by marriage, or by adoption, and whose right to exercise family control and provide for these dependent individuals is based upon some moral or legal obligation.

In addition to the personal exemption, a credit of $400 may be claimed for each person (other than husband or wife) under eighteen years of age, or incapable of self-support because mentally or physically defective, who received his or her chief support from the taxpayer during the taxable year. This credit can be claimed only by the person who furnishes the chief support, and can not be divided between two individuals.

If the status of the taxpayer, in so far as it affects the personal exemption or credit for dependents, changes during the taxable year, the personal exemption and credit shall be apportioned to the taxpayer with the number of months before and after such change. For the purpose of such apportionment a fractional part of a month shall be disregarded unless it amounts to more than half a month in which case it shall be considered a month.

Where a return is filed on Form 1040 for an estate in process of administration, or for a trust, an exemption of $1,000 may be claimed.

23. COMPUTATION TAX

Income from a partnership or fiduciary computed on a fiscal year basis.—The total gross income received by a taxpayer for a fiscal year ending in 1932 shall be computed as if such income were for the calendar year 1932. If income is received from a partnership making its return for a fiscal year ending in 1932, the part of such income attributable to 1932 shall be added to your other income for that year subject to 1932 rates and the resulting amount shall be placed in the lower brackets of the rate schedule applicable to 1932, and the part of such income attributable to 1931 shall be placed in the next higher brackets of the rate schedule applicable to 1931.

Surplus.—The surplus for any amount of net income not shown in the table below is computed by adding to the surplus for the largest amount shown which is less than the income, the surplus upon the excess over that amount at the rate indicated in the table.

In the case of a bona fide sale of mines, oil or gas wells, or any interest therein, the surplus on the profit shall not exceed 10 per cent of the selling price. See Section 102 of the Revenue Act of 1932.

Income tax paid to a foreign country or U. S. possession.—If, in accordance with Section 131 (a) of the 1932 Act, a credit is claimed in Item 40 for income tax paid to a foreign country or a possession of the United States, submit Form 1116 with your return with the receipts for such payments. In case credit is sought for taxes abroad, the form must have attached to it a certified copy of the return on which the tax was based, and the Commissioner may require a bond on Form 1117 for the payment of any tax found due if the tax when paid differs from the credit claimed.

24. ITEMS EXEMPT FROM TAX

The following items are exempt from Federal income tax and should not be included in gross income:

(a) Amounts received under a life insurance contract paid by reason of the death of the insured, whether in a single sum or in installments (but if such amounts are held by the insurer under an agreement to pay interest thereon, the interest payments shall be included in gross income);

(b) Amounts received (other than amounts paid by reason of the death of the insured and interest payments on such amounts) under a life insurance, endowment, or annuity contract, but if such amounts (when added to amounts received before the taxable year under such contract) exceed the aggregate premiums or consideration paid (whether or not paid during the taxable year) then the excess shall be included in gross income. In the case of a transfer for a valuable consideration, by assignment or otherwise, of a life insurance, endowment, or annuity contract, or any interest therein, only the actual value of such consideration and the amount of the premiums and other sums subsequently paid by the transferee shall be exempt from taxation under paragraph (a) above or this paragraph;

(c) Gifts (not made as a consideration for service rendered), and money and property acquired by bequest, devise, or inheritance (but the income derived from such property is taxable and must be reported);

(d) Interest upon (1) the obligations of a State, Territory, or any political subdivision thereof, or the District of Columbia; or (2) securities issued under the Federal Farm Loan Act or under such Act as amended; or (3) the obligations of the United States or its possessions. In the case of obligations of the United States or its possessions, the interest thereon payable in savings certificates of deposit, the interest at 4 per cent and 4½ per cent Liberty Bonds and Treasury Bonds, owned in excess of $5,000, is subject to surtax if the net income is over $6,000, and should be reported (see instruction 9);

(e) Amounts received through accident or health insurance or workmen's compensation acts, as compensation for personal injuries or sickness, plus interest on any amounts not immediately received, whether by suit or agreement, on account of such injuries or sickness;

(f) The rental value of a dwelling house and appurtenances thereof furnished to a minister of the gospel as part of his compensation for services rendered;

(g) Compensation paid by a State or political subdivision thereof to its officers or employees for services rendered in connection with the exercise of an essential governmental function; and

(h) Amounts received as earned income from sources without the United States (except amounts paid by the United States or any agency thereof) by an individual citizen of the United States who is not domiciled in the United States more than six months during the taxable year. The taxpayer in such a case may not deduct from his gross income any amount properly allocable to or chargeable against the amount so excluded from his gross income.

25. ACCRUED OR RECEIVED INCOME

If your books of account are kept on the accrual basis, report all income accrued but not actually received or entered on the books, and expenses incurred instead of expenses paid.

If your books are not kept on the accrual basis, report all income received or constructively received, such as bank interest credited to your account, and expenses paid.

26. PERIOD TO BE COVERED BY RETURN

Your return for the calendar year 1932 shall be made on Form 1040. If the return is for a fiscal year ending on the last day of any month, other than December, in 1932, Form 1040(F) should be used. The accounting period established must be adhered to for subsequent years, unless permission was received from the Commissioner to make a change. An application for a change in the accounting period shall be made on Form 1128 and forwarded to the collector prior to expiration of thirty days from the close of the proposed taxable year.

27. AFFIDAVIT

The affidavit must be executed by the person whose income is reported unless he is ill, absent from the country, or otherwise incapacitated, in which case the legal representative or agent may execute the affidavit. A minor, however, making his own return must execute the affidavit.

The oath will be administered without charge by any collector, deputy collector, or agent, or by a notary public. If the taxpayer is unable to appear, the return should be sworn to before a notary public, justice of the peace, or other person authorized to administer oaths, except an attorney or agent who represents the taxpayer before the Department in connection with his tax liability.

28. WHEN AND WHERE THE RETURN MUST BE FILED

The return must be sent to the collector of internal revenue for the district in which you live or have your principal place of business, so as to reach the collector's office on or before March 15, 1933. In case you have no legal residence or place of business in the United States, the return should be forwarded to the Collector of Internal Revenue, Baltimore, Maryland.

29. WHEN AND TO WHOM THE TAX MUST BE PAID

The tax should be paid, if possible, by sending or bringing with the return a check or money order drawn to the order of "Collector of Internal Revenue (Insert city and State)". Do not send cash by mail, nor pay it in person except at the Collector's office.

The tax may be paid when the return is filed, or in four equal installments, as follows: The first installment shall be paid on or before June 15, 1933, the second installment shall be paid on or before June 15, 1933, the third installment on or before September 15, 1933, and the fourth installment on or before December 15, 1933.

If any installment is not paid on the date fixed for payment the whole amount of tax unpaid shall be paid upon notice and demand by the collector.

30. PENALTIES

For willful failure to make and file a return on time.—Not more than $10,000 or proportionate part for more than one year, or both, and, in addition, 25 per cent of the amount of the tax.

For willfully making a false or fraudulent return. Not more than $10,000 or imprisonment for not more than five years, or both, together with the costs of prosecution.

For deficiency in tax. Interest on a deficiency at 6 per cent per annum to the date the deficiency is ascertained, or to the date the return is filed, or, in addition, 25 per cent of the amount of the deficiency. If the deficiency is ascertained before the return is filed, or, in addition, 5 per cent of the amount of the deficiency if due to negligence or intentional disregard of rules or regulations without intent to defraud, or 50 per cent of amount of deficiency if due to fraud.

31. INFORMATION AT SOURCE

Every person making payments of salaries, wages, interest, rents, commissions, or other fixed or determinable income of $1,000 or more during the calendar year, or a partnership, or a trust, or a person, a partnership, or a trust, or a married person, is required to make a return on Forms 1096 and 1099 showing the amount of such payments and the name and address of each recipient. These forms must be filed with the collector of internal revenue upon request. Such returns covering the calendar year 1932 must be forwarded to the Commissioner of Internal Revenue, Sorting Section, Washington, D. C., in time to be received not later than February 15, 1933.

(c) Obligations of the United States or its possessions.

DIVIDENDS FROM DOMESTIC CORPORATIONS

State the amount of dividends received from domestic corporations subject to income tax under the Revenue Act of 1932, including your share of such dividends on stock owned by a partnership, syndicate, pool, joint venture, etc., or an estate or trust $

PENALTIES

For Willful Failure to Make and File a Return on Time.—Not more than $10,000 or imprisonment for not more than one year, or both, and, in addition, 25 per cent of the amount of the tax.

For Willfully Making a False or Fraudulent Return.—Not more than $10,000 or imprisonment for not more than five years, or both, together with the costs of prosecution.

For Deficiency in Tax.—Interest on deficiency at 6 per cent per annum to the date the deficiency is assessed, or to the thirtieth day after the filing of a waiver of the restrictions on assessment and collection of a deficiency in tax, whichever date is the earlier, and, in addition, 5 per cent of the amount of the deficiency if due to negligence or intentional disregard of rules and regulations without intent to defraud, or 50 per cent of amount of deficiency if due to fraud.

INSTRUCTIONS

Liability for Filing Return

An income tax return must be filed by every citizen of the United States whether residing at home or abroad, and every person residing in the United States, though not a citizen thereof, having a gross income for the calendar year 1932 of $5,000, or over, or a net income for the same period of (a) $1,000 or over, if single, or if married and not living with husband or wife, or (b) $2,500 or over, if married and living with husband or wife, or (c) more than the personal exemption if the status of the taxpayer changes during the taxable year. If the combined net income of husband and wife, including that of dependent minor children, if any, is $2,500 or over, or if their combined gross income is $5,000 or over, either each must make a return, or the income of each must be included in a single joint return.

Items Exempt from Tax

- Amounts received under a life insurance contract paid by reason of the death of the insured.
- Amounts received (other than by reason of the death of the insured) under a life insurance, endowment, or annuity contract, not to exceed the premiums or consideration paid for such contract.
- Gifts (not made as a consideration for services), and property acquired by bequest, devise, or inheritance (but the income from such property is taxable and must be reported).
- Interest upon (1) obligations of a State, Territory, or a political subdivision thereof, or the District of Columbia, (2) Federal Farm Loan bonds, and (3) all obligations of the United States and its possessions as to normal tax interest on Liberty Bonds owned in excess of $5,000 is subject to surtax if the net income is over $5,000.
- Amounts received as accident or health insurance for personal injuries or sickness, plus (if insured) received on account of such injuries or sickness.
- Reputed value of a dwelling house and furnishings thereof furnished a minister of the gospel as part of his compensation.
- Compensation paid by a State or political subdivision thereof to its officers or employees for services rendered in connection with the exercise of an essential governmental function.
- Compensation received for services rendered without the United States (except amounts paid by the United States or any agency thereof) by a citizen who is a nonresident for more than six months during the taxable year.

Income

Salaries.—Enter in Item 1 all salaries, wages, or other compensation received from outside sources by (a) yourself, (b) your husband or wife at a joint return is filed, and (c) each dependent minor child.

Interest.—Enter as Item 2 interest received on bank deposits, bonds, mortgages, and corporation bonds, except that interest received on bonds upon which a tax was paid if source by the debtor corporation should be entered as Item 4. The tax of 2 per cent paid at source on such interest should be claimed as a credit in Item 13. Interest on bonds is considered income when due and payable.

Other income.—Enter as Item 3 all other taxable income, including dividends on stock of domestic corporations not subject to income tax under the Revenue Act of 1932 and dividends on stock of foreign corporations, income of an estate or trust, and your share (whether received or not) in the profits of a partnership, syndicate, pool, joint venture, etc.

Deductions

Taxes.—Enter in Item 6 all personal taxes and taxes on property paid during the year. Do not include Federal income taxes. No part of foreign income and profits taxes is allowable as a deduction if a credit is claimed in Item 9 of the return.

Contributions.—Enter as Item 7 any contributions or gifts made during the year to any corporation or fund organized and operated exclusively for religious, charitable, or educational purposes. The amount claimed shall not exceed 15 per cent of the net income computed without the benefit of this deduction.

List names of organizations and amounts contributed to each in space above.

Other deductions.—Enter as Item 8 any other deductions authorized by law, including interest paid on personal indebtedness.

Personal Exemption and Credits

A single person, or a married person not living with husband or wife, may claim a personal exemption of $1,000. A person who, during the entire taxable year, was the head of a family or was married and living with husband or wife, may claim an exemption of $2,000. If husband and wife file a separate return, the personal exemption may be taken by either or divided between them.

A "head of a family" is an individual who actually supports and maintains in one household one or more individuals who are closely connected with him by blood relationship, relationship by marriage, or by adoption, and whose aid to exercise family control and provide for those dependent individuals is based upon some moral or legal obligation.

In addition to the personal exemption, a credit of $100 may be claimed for each person (other than husband or wife under eighteen years of age) or the taxable self-support because mentally or physically defective, who received his or her chief support from the taxpayer. This credit can be claimed only by the person who furnishes the chief support, and can not be divided between two individuals.

If the status of the taxpayer, in so far as it affects the personal exemption or credit for dependent children, changes during the taxable year, the personal exemption and credit shall be apportioned in accordance with the number of months (12 or over) and after such change. For the purpose of such apportionment a fractional part of a month shall be disregarded unless it amounts to more than half a month in which case it shall be considered as a month.

General Information

Affidavit.—The oath will be administered without charge by any collector, deputy collector, or internal revenue agent. If an internal revenue officer is not available, the return should be sworn to before a person authorized to administer oaths, except an attorney at law employed to represent the taxpayer before the Department in connection with his tax.

Returns.—File the return with the Collector of Internal Revenue for the district in which you reside on or before March 15, 1933.

Tax.—The tax may be paid at time of filing the return, or in four equal installments payable quarterly.

INSTRUCTIONS

The Instructions Numbered 1 to 28 on this Page Correspond with the Item Numbers on Page 1 of the Return

GROSS INCOME AND DEDUCTIONS

1. Gross sales.—If engaged in business where inventories are an income-determining factor, enter as Item 1 on page 1 of the return, the gross sales, less goods returned and any allowances or discounts from the sale price.

Banks, insurance companies, and other corporations required to submit statements of income and expenses to any national, State, municipal, or other public officer may submit with the return a statement of income and expenses in the form furnished to each officer, in lieu of the information requested in Items 1 to 27 of the return, except that a railroad company will submit with the return a statement on Form 1000. In such cases the taxable net income will be reconciled by means of Schedule L on page 3 of the return, with the net profit shown by the income and expense statement submitted, and should be entered as Item 28 on page 1 of the return.

2. Cost of goods sold.—Enter as Item 2 the information requested on lines (c) to (e) and list in Column 1 of Schedule A on page 4 of the return the principal items of cost, including the amount entered on line (c), the minor items to be grouped in one amount. Enter as salaries and wages on line (c) the total compensation, during the period covered by this return, of individuals employed (exclusive of officers and firm members).

If the production, purchase, or sale of merchandise is an income-producing factor in the trade or business, inventories of merchandise on hand should be taken at the beginning and end of the taxable year, which may be valued at cost or cost or market, whichever is lower. Enter the letters "C," or "C or M," immediately before the amount column on lines (a) and (e) under Item 2, if the inventories are valued at either cost, or cost or market, whichever is lower, and explain fully in answer to question 8 on page 3 the method used. In case the inventories reported do not agree with the balance sheet, attach a statement explaining how difference occurred.

3. Gross profit from sales.—Enter as Item 3 the gross profit from business in which inventories are an income-determining factor, which is obtained by deducting Item 2, the cost of goods sold as extended, from Item 1, the net sales.

4. Gross receipts from business in which inventories are not an income-determining factor.—Enter as Item 4 the gross receipts or operating revenue. (See also second paragraph of Instruction 1, above.)

5. Cost of operations.—Enter as Item 5 the cost of operations and list in Column 2 of Schedule A on page 4 of the return the principal items of cost. Enter as salaries and wages the total compensation, during the period covered by this return, of individuals employed (exclusive of officers and firm members).

6. Gross profit from business in which inventories are not an income-determining factor.—Enter as Item 6.

7. Interest on loans, etc.—Enter as Item 7 all interest received or credited to the corporation during the taxable year on loans, notes, mortgages, bonds, bank deposits, etc.

8. Rents.—Enter as Item 8 the gross amount received for the rent of property. Any deductions claimed for repairs, interest, taxes, and depreciation should be included in Items 16, 17, 18, and 22, respectively.

9. Royalties.—Enter as Item 9 the gross amount received as royalties. If a deduction is claimed for depletion, it should be reported as Item 23.

10. Profit from sale of capital assets.—Enter as Item 10 the amount of gain or loss from the sale or other disposition of real estate, stocks, bonds, and capital assets.

Describe the property briefly in Schedule B, and state the actual consideration or price received, or the fair market value of the property received in exchange. Expenses connected with the sale, such as commissions paid agents, may be deducted in computing the amount received.

If gain or loss is computed on March 1, 1913, value, both cost and March 1, 1913, value must be shown and full information given as to how March 1, 1913, value was determined. If the amount shown as cost is other than actual cash cost of the property sold, full details must be furnished regarding the acquisition of the property.

Enter as depreciation the amount of exhaustion, wear and tear, obsolescence, or depletion which has been allowed (but not less than the amount allowable) in respect of each property since date of acquisition, or since March 1, 1913, if the property was acquired before that date. In addition, if the property was acquired before March 1, 1913, and if the cost of such property is greater than its fair market value as of that date, the cost shall be reduced by the depreciation actually sustained before that date. See Section 113 of the Revenue Act of 1932.

Subsequent improvements include expenditures for additions, improvements, and repairs made to restore the property or prolong its useful life. Do not deduct ordinary repairs, interest, or taxes in computing gain or loss.

No loss shall be recognized in any sale or other disposition of shares of stock or securities where the corporation has acquired substantially identical stock or securities within 30 days before or after the date of such sale, unless the corporation is a dealer in stock or securities in the ordinary course of business.

Deductions for losses from sales or exchanges of stocks and bonds which are not capital assets as defined in Section 101 of the 1932 Act shall be allowed only to the extent of the gains from such sales or exchanges (including gains which may be derived by a taxpayer from the retirement of his own obligations). See Sections 23 (r) and (t) of the 1932 Act.

11. Dividends.—Enter as Item 11 (a) the amount received as dividends (1) from a domestic corporation subject to taxation under Title I of the Revenue Act of 1932, other than a corporation entitled to the benefits of Section 251 of the Revenue Act of 1932, and other than a corporation organized under the China Trade Act, 1922, or (2) from a foreign corporation when it is shown to the satisfaction of the Commissioner that more than 50 per cent of the gross income of such foreign corporation for the three-year period ending with the close of its taxable year preceding the declaration of such dividends (or for such part of such period as the corporation has been in existence) was derived from sources within the United States. Enter as Item 11 (b) dividends from a domestic corporation not subject to taxation under Title I of the Revenue Act of 1932. Enter as Item 11 (c) dividends from a foreign corporation other than a foreign corporation described in (2) of this paragraph.

12. Other income.—Enter as Item 12 all other taxable income for which no space is provided on the return.

13. Total income.—Enter as Item 13 the net amount of Items 3, and 6 to 12, inclusive, after deducting any losses reported in Items 3, 6, and 10.

14. Compensation of officers.—Enter as Item 14 the compensation of all officers, in whatever form paid, and fill in Schedule C, giving the information requested.

15. Rent.—Enter as Item 15 rent paid for business property in which the corporation has no equity.

16. Repairs.—Enter as Item 16 the cost of incidental repairs including the labor, supplies, and other items which do not add to the value or appreciably prolong the life of the property. Enter as salaries and wages the compensation, during the period covered by the return, of persons employed directly in connection with these incidental repairs, as shown in Schedule D. Expenditures for new buildings, machinery, equipment, or for permanent improvements or betterments which increase the value of the property are chargeable to capital account. Expenditures for restoring or replacing property are not deductible, as such expenditures are chargeable to capital accounts or to depreciation reserves, depending on how depreciation is charged on the books of the corporation.

17. Interest.—Enter as Item 17 interest paid on business indebtedness. Do not include interest on indebtedness incurred or continued to purchase or carry obligations or securities the interest upon which is wholly exempt from taxation.

18. Taxes.—Enter as Item 18 taxes paid or accrued during the taxable year. Do not include Federal income taxes, income taxes claimed as a credit in Item 32, taxes assessed against local benefits tending to increase the value of the property assessed, Federal taxes paid on bonds containing a tax-free covenant, nor taxes not imposed upon the taxpayer. No deduction is allowable for any portion of foreign income and profits taxes if a credit is claimed in Item 32.

19. Losses.—Enter as Item 19 losses sustained during the year and not compensated by insurance or otherwise. Losses of business property arising from fire, storm, shipwreck, or other casualty, or from theft, should be explained in Schedule F, giving the information requested.

20. Bad debts.—Enter as Item 20 debts, or portions thereof, arising from sales or services that have been reflected in income, which have been definitely ascertained to be worthless and have been charged off within the year, or such reasonable amount as has been added to a reserve for bad debts within the year.

If the debts are included in the deduction claimed, submit a schedule showing the amounts charged off, and state how each was determined to be worthless.

If the amount deducted is an addition to a reserve, enter in Schedule G the amount of sales charged on account, and the amount of bad debts charged off, for each of the years involved.

A debt previously charged off as bad, if subsequently collected, must be returned as income for the year in which collected.

21. Dividends.—Enter as Item 21 and describe in Schedule H dividends reported as income in Item 11 (c).

22. Depreciation.—The amount deductible on account of depreciation in Item 22 is computed fairly measuring the portion of the investment in depreciable property by reason of exhaustion, wear and tear, or obsolescence, which is properly chargeable against the operations of the year. If the property was acquired by purchase on or after March 1, 1913, the amount of depreciation should be determined upon the basis of the original cost (not replacement cost) of the property, and the probable number of years remaining of its useful life. In case the property was purchased prior to March 1, 1913, the amount of depreciation will be determined in the same manner, except that it will be computed on its original cost, less depreciation sustained prior to March 1, 1913, or the fair market value as of that date, whichever is greater. If the property was acquired in any other manner than by purchase see Section 114 of the Revenue Act of 1932. The capital sum to be replaced should be charged off over the useful life of the property either in equal annual installments or in accordance with any other recognized trade practice, such as an apportionment over units of production. Whatever plan or method of apportionment is adopted must be reasonable and must have due regard to operating conditions during the taxable year. The method adopted should be described in the return. Stocks, bonds, and like securities are not subject to exhaustion, wear and tear within the meaning of the law.

If a deduction is claimed on account of depreciation Schedule I shall be filled in, and the total amount claimed therein should correspond with the figures reflected in the balance sheet. In case obsolescence is included, state separately amount claimed and basis upon which it is computed. Land value or cost must not be included in this schedule, and where land and buildings were purchased for a lump sum the cost of the building subject to depreciation must be determined. The total amount of depreciation allowed on each property in prior years must be shown and if the cost of any asset has been fully recovered through previous depreciation allowances, the cost of such asset must not be included in the cost shown in the schedule of depreciable assets. See Sections 23 (b) and 114 of the Revenue Act of 1932.

23. Depletion.—If a deduction is claimed on account of depletion, secure from the collector Form D (minerals), Form E (coal), Form F (miscellaneous non-metals), Form O (oil and gas), or Form T (timber), fill in and file with return. If complete valuation data have been filed with Questionnaire in previous years, then file with this return information necessary to bring your depletion schedule up to date setting forth in full statement of all transactions bearing on deductions or additions to value of physical assets with explanation of how depletion deduction for the taxable year has been determined. See Sections 23 (j) and 114 of the Revenue Act of 1932.

24. Other deductions.—Enter other deductions authorized by law, except deduction for net loss for 1931, and file with the return a schedule showing how each was computed.

25. Total deductions, except for 1931 net loss.—Enter as Item 25 the total of Items 14 to 24, inclusive.

26. Net income without deduction for 1931 net loss.—Enter as Item 26 the net income, which is obtained by deducting Item 25 from Item 13. The net income of a corporation shall be computed upon the basis of its taxable year in accordance with the method of accounting regularly employed in keeping the books, unless such method does not clearly reflect the income.

27. Net loss for 1931.—Enter as Item 27 the amount of net loss for 1931, if any. See Section 117 of the Revenue Act of 1932. Submit schedule.

28. Taxable net income.—Enter as Item 28 the net income subject to tax, which is obtained by deducting Item 27 from Item 26.

CREDIT FOR TAXES

29. A nonresident foreign corporation subject to taxation may claim as a credit in Item 31 any income tax required to be deducted and withheld at the source.

30. If, in accordance with Section 131 (a) of the Revenue Act of 1932, a credit is claimed by a domestic corporation in Item 32 on account of income tax paid to a foreign country or a possession of the United States, submit Form 1118 with this return, together with the receipt for each such tax payment. In case credit is sought for taxes accrued for the taxable year, attach to it a certified copy of the return on which each such accrued tax was based, and the Commissioner may require a bond on Form 1119 for the payment of any additional tax found due if the foreign tax when paid differs from the amount claimed. A foreign corporation is not entitled to claim this credit.

LIABILITY FOR FILING RETURNS

31. Corporations generally.—Every domestic or resident corporation, joint-stock company, association, or insurance company not specifically exempted by Section 103 of the Revenue Act of 1932, whether or not having any net income, must file a return on this form, or on Form 1120A, if for a fiscal year.

32. Corporations in possessions of the United States.—Domestic corporations within the possessions of the United States (except the Virgin Islands) may report as gross income only gross income from sources within the United States, provided, (a) 80 per cent or more of the gross income for the three-year period immediately preceding the close of the taxable year (or such part thereof as may be applicable) was derived from a source within a possession of the United States; and (b) 50 per cent or more of the gross income for such period or such part thereof was derived from the active conduct of a trade or business within a possession of the United States.

33. Foreign corporations.—A foreign corporation subject to the provisions of the Revenue Act of 1932, regardless of the amount of its net income, is required to file a return with the collector in whose district is located its principal office or agency through which is transacted the business in the United States. The net income should be computed in accordance with Section 119 of the Revenue Act of 1932.

INSURANCE COMPANIES

34. Life insurance companies.—A life insurance company (issuing life insurance and annuity contracts (including contracts of combined life, health, and accident insurance), as defined by Section 201 of the Revenue Act of 1932, shall file its tax return on Form 1120L, instead of this form.

35. Mutual insurance companies.—A mutual insurance company (other than a life insurance company), in addition to the deductions allowed a corporation, unless otherwise allowed, may claim as deductions in Item 24 of the return, (a) the net addition required by law to be made within the taxable year to reserve funds (including in the case of an assessment insurance company the actual deposit of sums with State or Territorial officers pursuant to law as additions to guarantee or reserve funds); and (b) the sums other than dividends paid within the taxable year as policy and annuity contracts.

36. A mutual marine insurance company shall include in its gross income in Item 4 of this return the gross premiums collected and received, less amounts paid for reinsurance, and in addition to the deductions allowed a corporation, and to a mutual insurance company in Instruction 35 above, unless otherwise allowed, may claim as a deduction in Item 24 of the return amounts paid to policyholders on account of premiums previously paid by them, and interest paid upon such amounts between the ascertainment and the payment thereof.

37. A mutual insurance company (including interinsurance and reciprocal underwriters, but not including a mutual life or mutual marine insurance company) requiring its members to make premium deposits to provide for losses and expenses, in addition to the deductions allowed a corporation, and to a mutual insurance company in Instruction 35 above, unless otherwise allowed, may claim as a deduction in Item 24 of the return, the amount of premium deposits returned to its policyholders and the amount of premium deposits retained for losses, expenses, and reinsurance reserves.

38. The receipts of any mutual or mutual protection and indemnity associations not organized for profit, and no part of the net earnings of which inure to the benefit of any private stockholder or member, are exempt from taxation; but such associations shall be subject after other corporations to the tax upon their net income from interest, dividends, and rents.

39. Benevolent life insurance associations of a purely local character, mutual ditch or irrigation companies, mutual or cooperative telephone companies, or like organizations are exempt from taxation only if 85 per cent or more of the income consists of amounts collected from members for the sole purpose of meeting losses and expenses.

40. Other insurance companies.—The net income of an insurance company (other than a life or mutual insurance company referred to above) is the gross income earned during the taxable year from investment income and from underwriting income, computed on the basis of the underwriting and investment exhibit of the Annual Statement approved by the National Convention of Insurance Commissioners, plus the gain from the sale or other disposition of property, less the deductions for depreciation and necessary repairs, interest, taxes, losses, bad debt, depreciation, etc., as provided in Section 204 of the Revenue Act of 1932.

CONSOLIDATED RETURNS

41. Subject to the provisions of Section 141 of the Revenue Act of 1932 and Regulations 78, an affiliated group of corporations may make a consolidated return in lieu of separate returns. The making of a consolidated return, and the determination, computation, assessment, collection, and adjustment of tax liabilities under a consolidated return, are governed by Regulations 78. If a consolidated return is made for any taxable year, a consolidated return must be made for each subsequent taxable year.

42. The parent corporation, when filing a consolidated return on this form, shall attach thereto a schedule showing the names and addresses of all the corporations included in the return. Each taxable year each subsidiary must prepare two duplicate originals of Form 1122 conforming to Regulations 78 and authorizing the making of the return on its behalf. One of such forms shall be attached to the consolidated return as a part thereof, and the other shall be filed, at or before the time the consolidated return is filed, in the office of the collector for the subsidiary's district.

43. Supporting schedules shall be filed with the consolidated return. These schedules shall be prepared in columnar form, one column being provided for each corporation included in the consolidation, one column for a total of all items before adjustments are made, one column for intercompany eliminations and adjustments, and one column for a total of all items after giving effect to the eliminations and adjustments. The items included in the column for eliminations and adjustments should be symbolized to identify contra items affected, and suitable explanations appended, if necessary. Similar schedules shall also contain in columnar form a reconciliation of surplus for each corporation, together with a reconciliation of the consolidated surplus.

44. Consolidated balance sheets as of the beginning and close of the taxable year of the group, shall accompany the consolidated return prepared in a form similar to that required for reconciliation of surplus.

WORKING PAPERS

45. Every corporation should preserve, for inspection by a revenue officer, working papers showing the balance in each account on the corporation's books used in preparing the return.

BALANCE SHEETS

46. The balance sheets on page 2 of the return, Schedule K, should agree with the books, or any differences should be reconciled. The balance sheets for a consolidated return should be furnished in accordance with Instruction 44. All corporations engaged in an interstate and intrastate trade or business and reporting to the Interstate Commerce Commission and to any national, State, municipal, or other public officer, may submit, in lieu of Schedule K, copies of their balance sheets prescribed by said Commission or State and municipal authorities, as at the beginning and end of the taxable year.

In case the balance sheet as at the beginning of the current taxable year does not agree in every respect with the balance sheet which was submitted as at the end of the previous taxable year, the differences should be fully explained in the space provided under Schedule K.

PERIOD COVERED

47. Except in the case of the first return the corporation shall make its return on the basis upon which the return was made for the taxable year immediately preceding unless, with the approval of the Commissioner, a change is made in the accounting period.

48. If a corporation desires to change its accounting period from fiscal year to calendar year, from calendar year to fiscal year, or from one fiscal year to another fiscal year, an application for such change shall be made on Form 1128 and forwarded to the collector prior to the expiration of thirty days from the close of the proposed taxable year.

49. Where the Commissioner approves a change in the accounting period, the net income computed on the separate return for a fractional part of a year shall be placed on an annual basis by multiplying the amount thereof by twelve and dividing by the number of months included in the period, and the tax shall be such part of the tax computed on such annual basis as the number of months in such period is of twelve months.

TIME AND PLACE FOR FILING

50. The return for the calendar year 1932 must be sent to the collector of internal revenue for the district in which the corporation's principal office is located so as to reach the collector's office on or before March 15, 1933. In the case of a foreign corporation not having any office or place of business in the United States the return shall be filed on or before June 15, 1933, with the Collector of Internal Revenue, Baltimore, Maryland.

51. The collector of internal revenue may grant a reasonable extension of time for filing a return, not to exceed six months, if application therefor is made before the date prescribed by law for filing such return, whenever in his judgment good cause exists.

SIGNATURES AND VERIFICATION

52. The return shall be sworn to by the president, vice president, or other principal officer, and by the treasurer or assistant treasurer. The return of a foreign corporation having an agent in the United States shall be sworn to by such agent. If receivers, trustees in bankruptcy, or assignees are operating the property or business of the corporation, such receivers, trustees, or assignees shall execute the return for such corporation under oath.

PAYMENT OF TAXES

53. The tax should be paid by sending or bringing with the return a check or money order drawn to the order of "Collector of Internal Revenue at (insert name and city and State)." Do not send cash by mail, nor pay it in person except at the collector's office.

The tax is in the case of a domestic corporation may be paid when the return is filed, or in four equal installments, as follows: The first installment shall be paid on or before March 15, 1933, the second installment shall be paid on or before June 15, 1933, the third installment on or before September 15, 1933, and the fourth installment on or before December 15, 1933.

If any installment is not paid on the date fixed for its payment, the whole amount of the tax unpaid shall be paid upon notice and demand by the collector.

PENALTIES

54. For willful failure to make and file return on time.—Not more than $10,000 or imprisonment for not more than one year, or both, and in addition 25 per cent of the amount of the tax.

55. For willfully making a false or fraudulent return.—Not more than $10,000 or imprisonment for not more than five years, or both, together with the costs of prosecution.

56. For deficiency in tax.—Interest on a deficiency at 6 per cent per annum to the date the deficiency is assessed, or to the thirtieth day after the filing of a waiver of the restrictions on assessment and collection, whichever date is the earlier, and in addition 5 per cent of the amount of the deficiency if due to negligence or intentional disregard of rules and regulations without intent to defraud, or 50 per cent of the amount of the deficiency if due to fraud.

UNDISTRIBUTED PROFITS

57. If any corporation is formed or availed of for the purpose of preventing the imposition of the surtax upon its shareholders by permitting its gains and profits to accumulate instead of being divided or distributed, there shall be levied, collected, and paid for each taxable year upon the net income of such corporation a tax equal to 50 per cent of the amount thereof, which shall be in addition to the tax imposed by Section 13 of the Revenue Act of 1932. In such case the net income of the corporation shall include interest on the United States bonds issued after September 1, 1917, which would be subject to tax in whole or in part in the hands of an individual owner, and dividends received from a domestic corporation. See Section 104 of the Revenue Act of 1932.

INFORMATION AT THE SOURCE

58. Every corporation making payments of salaries, wages, interest, rent, commissions, or other fixed or determinable income of $1,000 or more during the calendar year, to a single person, a partnership, or a fiduciary, or $2,500 or more to a married person, or payments of dividends of $500 or more to a person, a partnership, or a fiduciary, is required to make a return on Forms 1090 and 1099 showing the amount of such payments and the name and address of each recipient. These forms will be furnished by any collector of internal revenue upon request. Such returns covering the calendar year 1932 must be forwarded to the Commissioner of Internal Revenue, Sorting Section, Washington, D. C., in time to be received not later than February 15, 1933.

INSTRUCTIONS

The Instructions Numbered 1 to 13 on this Page Correspond with the Item Numbers on Page 1 of the Return

GROSS INCOME AND DEDUCTIONS

1. Interest.—Enter as Item 1 interest received from all sources during the taxable year. Interest on bonds is considered income when due and payable.
2. Dividends.—Enter as Item 2 (a) the amount received as dividends (1) from a domestic corporation subject to taxation under Title I of the Revenue Act of 1932, other than a corporation entitled to the benefits of Section 254 of the Revenue Act of 1932 and other than a corporation organized under the laws of the United States; or (2) from a foreign corporation when it is shown to the satisfaction of the Commissioner that more than 50 per cent of the gross income of such foreign corporation for the three-year period ending with the close of its taxable year preceding the declaration of such dividends (or for such part of such period as the corporation has been in existence) was derived from sources within the United States. Enter as Item 2 (b) dividends from a domestic corporation not subject to taxation under Title I of the Revenue Act of 1932. Enter as Item 2 (c) dividends from a foreign corporation other than a foreign corporation described in (2) of this paragraph. Submit schedule.

3. Rents.—Enter as Item 3 rents received from tenants.
4. Total income.—Enter as Item 4 the total of Items 1 to 3, inclusive.
5. Interest exempt from taxation.—Enter as Item 5 the amount of interest received on the following obligations which are exempt from taxation: (1) Obligations of a State, Territory, or any political subdivision thereof, or the District of Columbia; (2) Securities issued under the provisions of the Federal Farm Loan Act or under the provisions of such Act as amended; and (3) Obligations of the United States or its possessions. Submit a schedule showing for each class of securities, (a) name of obligation, (b) amount of principal, (c) rate of interest, and (d) interest received.

6. Percentage of mean of reserve funds.—Enter as Item 6 the amount reported as Item 11 in Schedule A. There may be deducted from gross income an amount equal to 4 per centum of the mean of the reserve funds required by law to be held at the beginning and end of the taxable year, except that in the case of any reserve fund which is computed at a lower interest assumption rate, the rate of 3½ per centum shall be substituted for 4 per centum. Life insurance companies issuing policies covering life, health, and accident insurance are not required to maintain a weekly premium payment plan, continuing in force and not subject to cancellation, shall be allowed, in addition to the above, deduction of 3½ per centum of the mean of such reserve funds (not required by law) held at the beginning and end of the taxable year, as the Commissioner finds to be necessary for the protection of the holders of such policies only.

7. Dividends.—Enter as Item 7 the total amount of dividends deductible under Section 203 (a) (3) of the Revenue Act of 1932.
8. Two per cent of the reserve held for deferred dividends.—Enter as Item 8 an amount equal to 2 per cent of the reserve held at the end of the taxable year for deferred dividends the payment of which is deferred for a period of not less than five years from the date of the policy contract. Do not include in such reserve dividends payable during the following taxable year.

9. Investment expenses.—Enter as Item 9 expenses paid which are properly chargeable to investment expenses, the total amount of which, if there be any allocation of general expenses to investment expenses, should not exceed one-half of 1 per cent of the mean of the invested assets reported in Item 11, Schedule B. Submit a schedule showing the nature and amount of the items included herein, the minor items being grouped in one amount. See Section 203 (a) (5) of the Revenue Act of 1932.

10. Taxes.—Enter as Item 10 taxes paid exclusively upon real estate owned by the company, and that proportion of the taxes assessed against individual shareholders and paid by the company with reimbursement, as provided in Section 203 (a) (6) of the Revenue Act of 1932. Do not include taxes assessed against local benefits of a kind tending to increase the value of the property assessed, as for paving, sewerage, etc.

11. Other real estate expenses.—Enter as Item 11 all ordinary and necessary building expenses, such as fire insurance, heat, light, labor, etc., and the cost of incidental repairs which neither materially add to the value of the property nor appreciably prolong its life, but keep it in an ordinarily efficient operating condition. Do not include any amount paid out for new buildings or for permanent improvements or betterments made to increase the value of any property.

12. Depreciation.—The amount deductible on account of depreciation in Item 12 is an amount charged off which fairly measures the loss during the year by reason of exhaustion, wear and tear, or obsolescence in the company's investment in property used in the business. Such an amount should be determined upon the basis of the cost of the property, or if purchased prior to March 3, 1913, the cost or value as of that date, whichever is greater, and the useful number of years remaining of its useful life. In addition, if the property was acquired before March 1, 1913, and if the cost of such property is greater than its fair market value as of that date, the cost shall be reduced by the depreciation actually sustained before that date. If a deduction is made on account of depreciation the following schedule must be filled in and the total amount of depreciation should correspond to the figures reflected in the company's books. In case obsolescence is included, state separately the amount claimed and the basis upon which it is computed. Land values must not be included in this schedule. Stocks, bonds, and like securities are not subject to depreciation within the meaning of the law.

Kind of property (if building, state material of which constructed)	Date acquired	Age when acquired	Probable life when acquired	Cost or value as of date, whichever is greater (in dollars and cents)	Amount of depreciation charged off
					Previous year	This year
TOTALS

13. Interest on indebtedness.—Enter as Item 13 the amount of interest paid during the taxable year on the company's indebtedness, except on indebtedness incurred or continued to purchase or carry obligations or securities the interest upon which is wholly exempt from taxation. Interest paid on dividends held on deposit and surrendered during the taxable year should be included in this item.

14. Rental value of real estate.—The deduction included in Items 10 to 12 on account of real estate owned and occupied in whole or in part by the company shall be limited to an amount which bears the same ratio to such deduction (computed without regard to subsection (b) of Section 203 of the Revenue Act of 1932) as the rental value of the space not so occupied bears to the rental value of the entire property. (Submit detailed schedule.)

CREDIT FOR TAXES

15. A foreign company subject to taxation and not engaged in a trade or business within the United States and not having any office or place of business therein may claim as a credit in Item 24 any income tax required to be deducted and withheld at the source.

16. If credit is claimed in Item 24 for income tax paid to a foreign country or possession of the United States, Form 1118, together with the receipt for each such tax payment, must be submitted with this return. If credit is claimed for taxes accrued a bond may be required on Form 1119. A foreign company is not entitled to claim this credit.

LIST OF ATTACHED SCHEDULES

17. Attach a list of the schedules accompanying this return, giving for each a brief title and the schedule number. Place name and address of company on each schedule.

COMPANIES REQUIRED TO FILE A RETURN

18. Liability.—Every domestic or foreign life insurance company that derives income from sources within the United States, issuing life and annuity contracts (including life, health, and accident insurance), the reserve funds of which held for the fulfillment of such contracts comprise more than 50 per cent of its total reserve funds, shall file a return on this form. See Sections 201 to 203 of the Revenue Act of 1932.

19. Basis of return.—A return on this form shall be rendered on a cash receipts and disbursements basis in conformity with the annual statement made to the State Insurance Department, instead of the accrual basis.

20. Annual statement.—A copy of the annual statement for life insurance companies adopted by the National Convention of Insurance Commissioners for the year 1932, as filed with the Insurance Department of the State in which the company is located, together with copies of Schedule A (real estate) and Schedule D (bonds and stocks), must accompany this return. Similar copies for the previous year must be also furnished, if not filed with the return for the previous year.

PERIOD COVERED

21. The return shall be for the calendar year ended December 31, 1932, and the net income computed on the calendar year basis in accordance with the State laws regulating insurance companies.

TIME AND PLACE FOR FILING

22. The return must be sent to the Collector of Internal Revenue for the district in which the company's principal office is located, so as to reach the collector's office on or before March 15, 1933. In the case of a foreign company not having any office or place of business in the United States, the return shall be filed with the Collector of Internal Revenue, Baltimore, Maryland, on or before June 15, 1933.

The Collector of Internal Revenue may grant a reasonable extension of time for filing a return, not to exceed six months, if application therefor is made before the time provided by law for filing such return, whenever in his judgment good cause exists.

AFFIDAVIT

23. The return shall be sworn to by the president, vice president, or other principal officer, and by the treasurer or assistant treasurer. The return of a foreign company having an agent in the United States shall be sworn to by such agent. An attorney or agent employed to represent the company before the Department is not permitted to administer the oath.

PAYMENT OF TAX

24. The tax shall be paid by sending with the return a check or money order drawn to the order of "Collector of Internal Revenue of (insert name of city and State)." Do not send cash by mail, nor pay it in person except at the collector's office.

The total tax in the case of a domestic company may be paid at the time of filing the return, or in four equal installments, as follows: The first installment shall be paid on or before March 15, 1933; the second installment shall be paid on or before June 15, 1933; the third installment on or before September 15, 1933; and the fourth installment on or before December 15, 1933. If any installment is not paid on the date fixed for its payment, the whole amount of the tax unpaid shall be paid upon notice and demand by the collector.

PENALTIES

25. For willful failure to make and file a return on time.—Not more than $10,000 or imprisonment for not more than one year, or both, and, in addition, 25 per cent of the amount of the tax.

26. For willfully making a false or fraudulent return.—Not more than $10,000 or imprisonment for not more than five years, or both, together with the costs of prosecution.

27. For deficiency in tax.—Interest on a deficiency at 6 per cent per annum to the date the deficiency is assessed, or to the thirtieth day after the filing of a waiver of the restrictions on assessment and collection, whichever date is the earlier, and, in addition, 1 per cent of the amount of the deficiency if due to negligence or intentional disregard of rules and regulations without intent to defraud, or 50 per cent of amount of deficiency if due to fraud.

INFORMATION AT SOURCE

28. Every corporation making payments of salaries, wages, interest, rents, commissions, or other fixed or determinable income of $1,000 or more during the calendar year to a single person, a partnership, or a fiduciary, or $2,500 or more to a married person, or payments of dividends of $500 or more to a person, a partnership, or a fiduciary, is required to make a return on Form 1096 and 1099 showing the amount of such payments and the name and address of each recipient. These forms will be furnished by any collector of internal revenue upon request. Such returns of information covering the calendar year 1932 must be forwarded to the Commissioner of Internal Revenue, Sorting Station, Washington, D. C., in time to be received not later than February 15, 1933.

QUESTIONS

1. Date of incorporation.
2. Under the laws of what State or country?
3. Did the company file a return under the same name for the preceding taxable year? Was the company in any way an outgrowth, result, continuation, or reorganization of a business or businesses in existence during this or any prior year since December 31, 1917? If answer is "yes," give name and address of each predecessor business, and the date of the change in entity:

Upon such change were any asset values increased or decreased?

4. State the amount of deferred dividend funds at the end of the taxable year, exclusive of any amount held for payments during the following taxable year: $.....

5. Describe method used for determining investment expenses shown in Item 9:

6. Is the above method the same as that used in preparing the Gain and Loss Exhibit for 1931? If not, state change and reason therefor:

7. Are any general expenses in part assigned to or included in the investment expenses shown in Item 9?
